Taking It Home Stories From The Neighborhood:

Taking it Home Tony Ardizzone,1996 Tony Ardizzone s Taking It Home recalls Italian American life on the North Side of his native Chicago in the 1950s and 1960s Neighbors and Other Stories Diane Oliver,2024-02-13 A bold and haunting debut story collection that follows various characters as they navigate the day to day perils of Jim Crow racism from Diane Oliver a missing figure in the canon of twentieth century African American literature with an introduction by Tayari Jones A remarkable talent far ahead of her time Diane Oliver died in 1966 at the age of 22 leaving behind these crisply told and often chilling tales that explore race and racism in 1950s and 60s America In this first and only collection by a masterful storyteller finally taking her rightful place in the canon Oliver s insightful stories reverberate into the present day There s the nightmarish The Closet on the Top Floor in which Winifred the first Black student at her newly integrated college starts to physically disappear Mint Juleps not Served Here where a couple living deep in a forest with their son go to bloody lengths to protect him Spiders Cry without Tears in which a couple Meg and Walt are confronted by prejudices and strains of interracial and extramarital love and the high tension titular story that follows a nervous older sister the night before her little brother is set to desegregate his school These are incisive and intimate portraits of African American families in everyday moments of anxiety and crisis that look at how they use agency to navigate their predicaments As much a social and historical document as it is a taut engrossing collection Neighbors is an exceptional literary feat from a crucial once lost figure of letters law enforcement by promising to build trust between citizens and officers Today three quarters of American police departments claim to embrace the strategy But decades before the phrase was coined the New York City Housing Authority Police Department HAPD had pioneered community based crime fighting strategies The Last Neighborhood Cops reveals the forgotten history of the residents and cops who forged community policing in the public housing complexes of New York City during the second half of the twentieth century Through a combination of poignant storytelling and historical analysis Fritz Umbach draws on buried and confidential police records and voices of retired officers and older residents to help explore the rise and fall of the HAPD s community based strategy while questioning its tactical effectiveness The result is a unique perspective on contemporary debates of community policing and historical developments chronicling the influence of poor and working class populations on public policy making

Vibe Corey J. Miles, 2023-11-27 Where exactly does the South begin and end Current maps are too rigid to account for the ways Black people have built the South while being simultaneously excluded from it Drawing from the different ways Black artists in the 252 area code in North Carolina use vibe as a mode of knowing and communication author Corey J Miles illustrates how Black feeling and unfeeling offer entry points into the contemporary South that challenge static and monolithic notions of the region Placing the local artists in conversation with other southern cultural creators such as 2 Chainz Rod Wave and Rapsody these ethnographic narratives demonstrate that there are multiple Souths with overlapping and distinct commitments to working through pain sound and belonging In Vibe The Sound and Feeling of Black Life in the American South Miles narrates how southern Black sound feeling and being is constantly policed surveilled and criminalized In doing so he re narrates the region as the carceral South to capture the ways people in the South and beyond can feel the emotional weight of the criminalization of Blackness Pain music a subgenre of trap music is used to take the listener to moments of violence to allow them to hear the desires anger and silences that bind Black life in community Through conceptions of ratchet hood and ghetto Black artists turn away from respectable images and unmap the South In trap music they move the South to a space where multiple modes of being find respect and care

Gender by the Book Julie Fette, 2024-10-31 Gender by the Book investigates the gender representations that French children's literature transmits to readers today Using an interdisciplinary mixed methods approach this book grounds its literary analysis in a sociohistorical examination of three key institutions libraries book clubs and subscription magazines that circulate reading material to children It shows how French policies cultural beliefs and market forces influence the content of children's literature including tensions between State support for unprofitable artistic endeavors and a belief in children's right to high quality products on the one hand and suspicion of activism as anathema to creativity and fear of losing boy readers on the other In addition the notion of universalism which asserts that equality is best achieved when society is blind to differences thwarts a diverse and equitable array of literary representations Nevertheless conditions are favorable for 21st century French children's publishers to offer a robust body of richly entertaining egalitarian literature for children This title is freely available as open access thanks to generous support from the Fondren Library at Rice University

My Book Is My Story LA Virgil-Maldonado, 2013-03-07 This book is a poetic journey comprised of mini chapters resembling a modern day Biblical Psalms Like Psalms this is a writer's deepest expressions sincerest conversations with God and the depiction of hope in Him Despite the mess ups there is true repentance and compassion for us as individuals and moreover as a human race The Holy Spirit has guided me and God has sustained my life so that I can proclaim His works Although some may see this as controversial I plead with you to be non judgmental for these are my encounters stories accounts events and thoughts that many experience but are afraid of expressing in fear of being seen as odd Hopefully as you journey with me you will realize that we are more of the same than different especially when we recognize that it is all about being led by our Creator When in doubt I dare you to try Him out Take the challenge and surrender to that which already lies within you just turn on that light switch who I call friend guide comforter vindicator and most of all partner Put your seatbelt on and embrace my limitless journey with the Holy Spirit
