Taking Learning To Task:

Taking Learning to Task Jane Vella, 2000-07-25 Reading this wonderful book is like having Jane Vella at your side. She gives us the courage to risk changing our established habits of teaching. Clifford Baden, director of programs for professional education, Harvard University. By marrying theory and practice, Vella has shown how to design learning that takes hold of the learner's mind, heart, and muscles. Jack McCall, professor, Principals Executive Program, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. You'll feel as though you've found the keys to creating profound and powerfully effective learning experiences. Anyone responsible for engaging a group of adults in learning will find this book invaluable. Rod Brooks, vice president for administration, EXPLORIS. Known for her work in popular education and her worldwide teaching experience, Jane Vella has significantly changed the way we view adult learning. In her three bestselling books, Learning to Listen, Learning to Teach, Training Through Dialogue, and How Do They Know They Know, she writes with one basic assumption: that learning is most effective when teachers involve their students in the learning process. In Taking Learning to Task, Vella shifts the spotlight from teaching tasks to learning tasks. Unlike traditional teaching methods, learning tasks are open questions leading to open dialogue between teacher and learner. To illustrate this unique approach, Vella provides seven steps to planning learning-centered courses, four types of learning tasks, a checklist of principles and practices, critical questions for instructional design, key components for evaluation, and other tools. She also shares real-world examples of successful learning programs, including online and distance learning courses. Taking Learning to Task is a hands-on, practical guide to designing effective learning tasks for diverse learners and diverse content. Teachers, trainers, and all types of instructors will find a wealth of advice for refining their day-to-day practice.

A Practical Approach to Supporting Science and Engineering Students with Self-Regulated Learning Erin E. Peters-Burton, 2023-11-16 Science and engineering practices tend to be more difficult to teach and monitor for student progress than content knowledge because practices are skill-based. This book presents tangible ways for teacher educators and teachers to design learning environments that involve student goal setting, monitoring, and reflection on their performance of science and engineering practices. It models ways teachers can support effective learning behaviors and monitor student progress in science and engineering practices. It also presents practical ways to set up preservice teacher instruction and inservice teacher professional development that address both self-regulated learning and science and engineering practices. Educational research designs are presented from qualitative, quantitative, and mixed methods traditions that investigate student and teacher engagement with science and engineering practices through self-regulated learning.

On Teaching and Learning Jane Vella, 2014-07-17 On Teaching and Learning takes the ideas explored in renowned educator Jane Vella's best-selling book Learning to Listen, Learning to Teach to the next level and explores how dialogue education has been applied in educational settings around the world. Throughout the book, she shows how to put the principles and practices of dialogue education into action and uses illustrative stories and examples from her extensive travels Dialogue education values inquiry integrity and commitment to equity values that are also central to democracy Learners are treated as beings worthy of respect recognized for the knowledge and experience they bring to the learning experience Dialogue education emphasizes the importance of safety and belonging It is an approach that welcomes one's certainties and one's questions

Robot Learning from Human Teachers
Sonia Chernova, Andrea L. Thomaz, 2022-06-01 Learning from Demonstration LfD explores techniques for learning a task policy from examples provided by a human teacher The field of LfD has grown into an extensive body of literature over the past 30 years with a wide variety of approaches for encoding human demonstrations and modeling skills and tasks Additionally we have recently seen a focus on gathering data from non expert human teachers i.e. domain experts but not robotics experts In this book we provide an introduction to the field with a focus on the unique technical challenges associated with designing robots that learn from naive human teachers We begin in the introduction with a unification of the various terminology seen in the literature as well as an outline of the design choices one has in designing an LfD system Chapter 2 gives a brief survey of the psychology literature that provides insights from human social learning that are relevant to designing robotic social learners Chapter 3 walks through an LfD interaction surveying the design choices one makes and state of the art approaches in prior work First is the choice of input how the human teacher interacts with the robot to provide demonstrations Next is the choice of modeling technique Currently there is a dichotomy in the field between approaches that model low level motor skills and those that model high level tasks composed of primitive actions We devote a chapter to each of these Chapter 7 is devoted to interactive and active learning approaches that allow the robot to refine an existing task model And finally Chapter 8 provides best practices for evaluation of LfD systems with a focus on how to approach experiments with human subjects in this domain

International Handbook of Metacognition and Learning Technologies Roger Azevedo, Vincent Aleven, 2013-04-23 Education in today's technologically advanced environments makes complex cognitive demands on students pre learning during and post learning Not surprisingly these analytical learning processes metacognitive processes have become an important focus of study as new learning technologies are assessed for effectiveness in this area Rich in theoretical models and empirical data the International Handbook of Metacognition and Learning Technologies synthesizes current research on this critical topic This interdisciplinary reference delves deeply into component processes of self regulated learning SRL examining theories and models of metacognition empirical issues in the study of SRL and the expanding role of educational technologies in helping students learn Innovations in multimedia hypermedia microworlds and other platforms are detailed across the domains so that readers in diverse fields can evaluate the theories data collection methods and conclusions And for the frontline instructor contributors offer proven strategies for using technologies to benefit students at all levels For each technology covered the Handbook Explains how the technology fosters students metacognitive or self regulated learning Identifies features designed to study or support metacognitive SRL behaviors Reviews how its specific theory or model addresses learners metacognitive SRL processes Provides detailed findings on its effectiveness toward learning Discusses its implications for the design of metacognitive tools Examines any theoretical instructional or other challenges These leading edge perspectives make the International Handbook of Metacognition and Learning Technologies a resource of great interest to professionals and researchers in science and math education classroom teachers human resource researchers and industrial and other instructors

Teaching Adult English Language Learners Betsy Parrish, 2019

Machine Learning: ECML 2006 Johannes Fürnkranz, Tobias Scheffer, Myra Spiliopoulou, 2006-09-21 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 17th European Conference on Machine Learning ECML 2006 held jointly with PKDD 2006 The book presents 46 revised full papers and 36 revised short papers together with abstracts of 5 invited talks carefully reviewed and selected from 564 papers submitted The papers present a wealth of new results in the area and address all current issues in machine learning

Machine Learning: ECML 2005 João Gama, Rui Camacho, Pavel Brazdil, Alípio Jorge, Luís Torgo, 2005-11-15 The European Conference on Machine Learning ECML and the European Conference on Principles and Practice of Knowledge Discovery in Databases PKDD were jointly organized this year for the fth time in a row after some years of mutual independence before

After Freiburg 2001 Helsinki 2002 Cavtat 2003 and Pisa 2004 Porto received the 16th edition of ECML and the 9th PKDD in October 3-7. Having the two conferences together seems to be working well. 585 different paper submissions were received for both events which maintains the high submission standard of last year. Of these 335 were submitted to ECML only 220 to PKDD only and 30 to both. Such a high volume of scientific work required a tremendous effort from Area Chairs, Program Committee members and some additional reviewers. On average PC members had 10 papers to evaluate and Area Chairs had 25 papers to decide upon. We managed to have 3 highly qualified independent reviews per paper with very few exceptions and one additional overall input from one of the Area Chairs. After the authors' responses and the online discussions for many of the papers we arrived at the final selection of 40 regular papers for ECML and 35 for PKDD. Besides these 32 others were accepted as short papers for ECML and 35 for PKDD. This represents a joint acceptance rate of around 13% for regular papers and 25% overall. We thank all involved for all the effort with reviewing and selection of papers. Besides the core technical program ECML and PKDD had 6 invited speakers, 10 workshops, 8 tutorials and a Knowledge Discovery Challenge.
