Eugene Bright, 2016-09-21 Set against the backdrop of over one hundred years of world history Take a Walk on the Bright Side begins with the story of Eugene Bright's restless entrepreneurial grandfather Tom Bright who uprooted his young family in 1907 to travel west and build a homestead in Saskatchewan. A few years later he moved on and started over again in Montana only to flee the United States when a confrontation with a neighbour turned dangerous. Tom was a colourful character who was married six times twice to the same woman. Eugene's father Ray Bright left home at eighteen to work as a cowboy in Montana before marrying Lottie Sampson and settling down in Ontario to start farming. Although Lottie did not want any children they had four boys and four girls. The family lived without running water or electricity but they ate like kings according to a hired man. Eugene and his brothers and sisters walked across neighbouring fields to a one room schoolhouse run by an outstanding teacher. Eugene worked hard on the farm and at school and he went on to attend bible college and university beginning a thirty one year career as a teacher, a school principal and a master at a teachers college. Told by the decade and extensively illustrated Take a Walk on the Bright Side is a multi generational tale brought to life by a keen observer.

The Year the Lights Came On Terry Kay, 2012-08-20 First published in 1976 The Year the Lights Came On was Terry Kay's debut novel. Revolving around the electrification of rural northeast Georgia shortly after the end of World War II the novel has become a classic coming of age story. Kay now an acclaimed writer with an international following has reread the novel with the eyes of a seasoned storyteller. Cutting here and adding there Kay has enriched an already highly comical and poignant work. The Year the Lights Came On is ready to find its place in the hearts of a new generation.

Arthur's Home Magazine, 1886 Too Late for Angels Mignon F. Ballard, 2005-03-01 Things in the town of Stone's Throw South Carolina rarely get much spicier than the extra red pepper Lucy Nan Pilgrim sprinkles into her homemade cheese straws. So when an elderly but surprisingly childlike woman calling herself Shirley shows up on Lucy's doorstep looking for her mama Lucy thinks it must be another of her friend Ellis's pranks. But Ellis doesn't know a thing about it and what's more the two suspect the woman might be Ellis's cousin Florence who disappeared as a child more than fifty years earlier. When the mysterious woman vanishes from Lucy's house she and Ellis don't know what to think. And considering that Calpernia Hemphill the town's theater and music aficionado has just been found dead of an apparent fall from the tower at Bertram's Folly life in Stone's Throw suddenly seems less safe than sinister. Luckily guardian angel Augusta Goodnight shows up to calm Lucy's nerves with a basket of strawberry muffins of course. And not a moment too soon because Shirley Florence is found dead at the bottom of a steep flight of steps in the parking lot behind the Methodist church. She is not the last victim and Ellis whose inheritance could be threatened by the reappearance of her long lost cousin remains the number one suspect. Augusta Lucy and the Thursday Morning Literary Society which now meets on Monday afternoons must use their heads and a little bit of home cooking to solve the mystery.
