

THE TALE OF TERRIBLE TOWSER

INTRODUCING TOWSER

GRRRF, grrrf! Go away!
Oh, excuse me. I thought you were going to pull my tail—and no decent dog likes to be treated like that. Well, if you want to scratch my head for me, go ahead—I don't mind. In fact, I rather like it. You can see that by the way I keep wagging my little tail, happy, happy—um, yum, I do love to be scratched!

Tell you a story? Ha! ha! whoever heard of a dog that knows how to tell a story? A dog story, perhaps—or all about how I chased a poor old Kitty-cat up the street last night and fell into a cellar and stubbed my two front paws. But I'm afraid you won't be interested in a plain little doggie story like that.

Oh, very well, then—I'll tell you all about myself. Let me see. I'll tell you all that happened during those strange two weeks when I went to the country. Ever been to the country? Of course, it's not so strange for little boys and girls to hop on a train with their mammas and papas when summer-time comes and to travel far out into the country, to where the hills are blue and the fields all green and golden. But for little dogs to do such a thing—oh, that's a different matter! Why, I have lots and lots of friends in the city—very nice dogs, too—who belong to the best families on the street—and there wasn't one of them that didn't have to stay in the ugly town all through the hottest part of the season.
