Voices of Trauma Boris Drozdek, John P. Wilson, 2007-07-23 Synthesizing insights from psychiatry social psychology and anthropology this important work sets out a framework for therapy that is as culturally informed as it is productive An international panel of 23 therapists offers contextual knowledge on PTSD coping skills and other sequelae experienced by the survivors of traumatic events Case studies from Egypt to Chechnya demonstrate various therapeutic approaches Authors explore the balance of inter and intrapersonal factors in reactions to trauma and dispel misconceptions that hinder progress in treatment

Australian Literature Graham Huggan, 2007-09-27 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English In a provocative contribution to the series Graham Huggan presents fresh readings of an outstanding sometimes deeply unsettling national literature whose writers and readers just as unmistakably belong to the wider world Australian literature is not the unique province of Australian readers and critics nor is its exclusive task to provide an internal commentary on changing national concerns Huggan's book adopts a transnational approach motivated by postcolonial interests in which contemporary ideas taken from postcolonial criticism and critical race theory are productively combined and imaginatively transformed Rejecting the fashionable view that Australia is not and never will be postcolonial Huggan argues on the contrary that Australian literature like other settler literatures requires close attention to postcolonial methods and concerns A postcolonial approach to Australian literature he suggests is more than just a case for a more inclusive nationalism it also involves a general acknowledgement of the nation's changed relationship to an increasingly globalized world As such the book helps to deprovincialize Australian literary studies Australian Literature also contributes to debates about the continuing history of racism in Australia a history in which the nation's literature has played a constitutive role as both product and producer of racial tensions and anxieties nowhere more visible than in the discourse it has produced about race both within and beyond the national context

Greek Islander Migration to Australia since the 1950s Melissa N. Afentoulis, 2021-11-23 Illuminating the experiences of immigrants to Australia in the late twentieth century this book uses oral history to explore how identity and belonging are shaped through migration Between the 1950s and the 1970s many inhabitants from the small Greek island of Limnos travelled to Australia to flee post war devastation and economic disaster With an emphasis on the lived experiences and memories of Limnians the book sheds light on the emotional pain and trauma they felt as they were separated from their families and homeland Moving away from more traditional outlooks on migration studies this book emphasises the significance of ethno regional identity and analyses how it can bring strength and longevity to a constructed community Both the roles of men and women within the Greek diaspora are examined in the way that they made the difficult decision to leave their homeland and subsequently how they came to nurture and build families within a new evolving community Looking beyond first generation migration the author analyses the pattern of return visits to Limnos by the descendants of migrants Acting as a form of identity consolidation for second generation migrants this journey to the ancestral homeland highlights the fluidity of what it means to belong somewhere and redefines the notion of home The author provides an alternative perspective to traditional migration studies and reaffirms the importance of transnational identity A unique and important addition to research this book combines memory studies and oral narrative to analyse how identity and belonging can be shaped across borders rather than within them Soft Weapons Gillian Whitlock, 2010-02-15 Azar Nafisi's Reading Lolita in Tehran Marjane Satrapi's comics and Baghdad Blogger Salam Pax's Internet diary are just a few examples of the new face of autobiography in an age of migration globalization and terror But while autobiography and other genres of life writing can help us attend to people whose experiences are frequently unseen and unheard life narratives can also be easily co-opted into propaganda In Soft Weapons Gillian Whitlock explores the dynamism and ubiquity of contemporary life writing about the Middle East and shows how these works have been packaged promoted and enlisted in Western controversies Considering recent autoethnographies of Afghan women refugee testimony from Middle Eastern war zones Jean Sasson's bestsellers about the lives of Arab women Norma Khouri's fraudulent memoir Honor Lost personal accounts by journalists reporting the war in Iraq Satrapi's Persepolis Nafisi's book and Pax's blog Whitlock explores the contradictions and ambiguities in the rapid commodification of life memoirs Drawing from the fields of literary and cultural studies Soft Weapons will be essential reading for scholars of life writing and those interested in the exchange of literary culture between Islam and the West Wanderer zwischen den Kulturen David Johannes Berchem, 2014-03-15 Migranten gehen zu den wohl einflussreichsten Agenten der Globalisierung von unten Diese auf einer ethnographischen Feldforschung basierende kulturanthropologische Mikrostudie zur Ethnizität deutscher Migranten in Sydney untersucht nicht nur bewegte Lebensformen vor einem deutsch australischen Gesellschaftshorizont sondern analysiert auch die Verlaufsmuster von Integration Akkulturation und Differenzgenerierung ber einen erfahrungsnahen methodischen Zugang zeichnet das Buch ein kaleidoskopisches Bild vom deutschen Alltag am buchstäblich anderen Ende der Welt Encyclopedia of Weird War Stories Paul Green, 2017-06-09 Fictional war narratives often employ haunted
