Tales From The New Shop Floor Inside The Real Jobs Of The Information Economy:

Tales from the New Shop Floor Peter Lewis, 2000 Reassessing the Employment Relationship Edmund Heery, Peter Turnbull, 2010-11-10

Reassessing the Employment Relationship is an edited volume written by leading academics at Cardiff Business School. Reflecting on the employment relationship as one of the central institutions of advanced capitalist economies, it provides an extensive survey of the changing world of work. The book offers a multi-disciplinary analysis of the contemporary workplace and focuses on the key influences that are shaping the employment relationship: globalization, financialization, regulation, and the search for ethical standards in human resource management. There is insightful and authoritative treatment of some of the main developments in the employment relationship, such as the rise of knowledge and customer service work, increasing income inequality, new forms of management control over work, the spread of non-union industrial relations, and the rise to prominence of work-life integration. Reassessing the Employment Relationship provides a critical yet accessible look at the changing employment relationship and is an indispensable aid to students studying Industrial Relations, Human Resource Management, Organizational Studies, and Business Ethics.

PAUL BLYTON is Professor of Industrial Relations and Industrial Sociology at Cardiff University, UK. EDMUND HEERY is Professor of Employment Relations at Cardiff University, UK. PETER TURNBULL is Professor of Human Resource Management and Labour Relations at Cardiff University, UK.

Dimensions of Adult Learning Griff Foley, 2020-07-31

Adult education has never been more important or urgent than it is today. Few educators have had the impact on adult education of Griff Foley. Professor Peter McLaren, University of California, Los Angeles, says: "This timely and valuable book makes an important contribution to our understanding of key recent developments in adult education and their significance. Reflecting the increasingly global nature of scholarship in the field, well-respected international contributors analyse issues facing practitioners today and consider how these can be most positively embraced to further the international cause of adult learning and social justice." Janet Hannah, University of Nottingham: "Learning is central to all aspects of human life, and failure to learn brings dire consequences. As our world becomes more integrated and complex, adult learning has become more important. Dimensions of Adult Learning offers a broad overview of adult learning in the workplace and community. Written by a team of international experts, it introduces the core skills and knowledge which underpin effective practice. It examines adult education policy and research and highlights the social nature of adult learning. It also examines adult learning in different contexts: on-line learning, problem-based learning, organisational and vocational learning. Dimensions of Adult Learning is an essential reference for professionals and students." Griff Foley is Research Associate in Adult Education at the University of Technology, Sydney. He is author of Learning in Social Action and Strategic Learning.

Kid Culture Kathleen McDonnell, 2000

With clarity and humour, the author addresses why pop culture is an irresistible lure to kids by confronting the issues which both plague and challenge parents and educators today. The book examines questions such as: is Saturday morning TV as bad as it seems Should I give my daughter a Barbie and How is violence affecting kids The Role of Manufacturing Hubs in a 21st Century Innovation Economy United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, 2015
