Tales From The Out Of Time Cafe:

Maestro and Other Stories Phillip Mann, 2014-05-29 Six stories from Phillip Mann taken from his long and varied career Includes stories from the Out of Time Cafe a very unusual refuge from reality It attracts people afflicted with a deep malaise It offers what seems from the outside to be sanctuary but it can be subversive too for on entering the cafe one gives up a certain amount of independence and before one knows it one is trapped There is no escape save one the lift which services the cellars descends but no one who has used the lift has ever returned On a brighter note the cafe has a will of its own and travels different dimensions with ease and every journey is a new beginning Also featured are The Gospel According to Mickey Mouse originally produced as a hugely successful radio play Maestro Lux in Tenebris a cautionary tale about a medieval stonemason's encounter with an anachronism and the effect it has on his culture and An Old Fashioned Story wherein Jody is having problems with his Sythno companion Elizabeth who head butted him without warning He is attempting to repair her Then Elizabeth and her Sythno Joseph from next door drop in Tales from the Astral Cafe Jared Pixley, 2003-02-28 Just because you only bought lunch doesn't mean that's all you're going to get Tales from the Pour House Café Larry Dunlap, 2010-11 The wackiest characters this side of Mayberry stumble through misadventures with Southern wit and audacity Leonard Elvis and Jelly the main characters find themselves in one catastrophe after another a holdup a pickle eating contest a giant snake and the capture of a Chinese troll as well as the ordinary problems of life The stories are told by the Preacher who is the narrator Kind hearts and good intentions clash with reality and mess ups in this zany glimpse of rural America as it was and still is in a place called The Pour House Cafe in Maple Hill Tennessee This book is to entertainment what cornbread is to black-eyed peas Elvis Wilbanks Tales from the Out of Time Cafe Phillip Mann, 1996 Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty-six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well-known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non-fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research Stories from the Blue Moon Café III Sonny Brewer, 2004 Presents short stories set in the South from such writers as Daniel Wallace Rick Bragg Mary Ward Brown Juliana Gray and Alix Strauss Stories from the Blue Moon Cafe II Sonny
