Revised by A. Leighton, Etc John Mackay WILSON,1888 My Neighbour over the Border Paul Doe,2021-09-09 How do towns and cities divided by the harsh reality of an international border manage to get on with each other when their closest neighbour lives just next door but in another country Are they thriving or surviving Utterly dependent on each other or with backs turned socially and economically We visit towns and cities that you may not have heard of or know little about Places like distant Blagoveshchensk and Heihe Narva and Ivangorod and Gorlitz and Zgorzelec But also the better known Nicosia Europe s only divided capital Detroit with its Canadian neighbour Windsor Geneva and its French suburb Annemasse and the cities of Sarajevo and Mostar divided not by international borders but ethnic divisions baked into everyday life This is a fascinating and well researched study of thirty six towns and cities from across the world that are separated by borders Paul Doe delves into the way in which these divisions came about and how the separated towns and cities manage to get along or not buffeted as they are by geopolitics ethnic differences and historical animosities

Borders and Border Crossings in the Contemporary British Short Story Barbara Korte, Laura Ma Lojo-Rodríguez, 2020-01-02 This book represents a contribution to both border studies and short story studies In today's world there is ample evidence of the return of borders worldwide as material reality as a concept and as a way of thinking This collection of critical essays focuses on the ways in which the contemporary British short story mirrors questions and engages with border issues in national and individual life At the same time the concept of the border as well as neighbouring notions of liminality and intersectionality is used to illuminate the short story's unique aesthetic potential The first section Geopolitics and Grievable Lives includes chapters that address the various ways in which contemporary stories engage with our newly bordered world and borders within contemporary Britain The second section examines how British short stories engage with Ethnicity and Liminal Identities while the third Animal Encounters and Metamorphic Bodies focuses on stories concerned with epistemological borders and borderlands of existence and identity Taken together the chapters in this volume demonstrate the varied and complex ways in which British short stories in the twenty-first century engage with the concept of the border
