Tales Of The Heart Affective Approaches To Global Education:

Tales of the Heart Tom Hampson, Loretta Whalen, 1991 Changing Perspectives on International Education Patrick O'Meara, Howard D. Mehlinger, Roxana Ma Newman, 2001 More than 40 years ago recognizing that higher education would have to take responsibility for educating Americans about other world cultures and societies Congress passed the National Defense Education Act later known as the Higher Education Act Title VI of this act has provided extensive support for foreign languages and area studies development in the nation's universities and colleges As a result millions of Americans have been able to acquire knowledge about other parts of the world Today there are new issues demands and perspectives Americans are more likely than ever to encounter different cultures business practices histories ideologies and ways of life In addition the United States is increasingly called upon to intervene or mediate in regional and local crises far beyond its borders U S educational institutions must continue to help citizens to have informed opinions about complex international problems Changing Perspectives on International Education is designed to be used by administrators and planners in U S education It covers the field of international studies as it has developed in the United States from its beginnings and accomplishments under Title VI to the current paradigmatic shifts taking place in research teaching and outreach A major section is devoted to internationalizing the curriculum of K 12 schools It concludes with a look at future trends and how they may affect international scholarship and training in the new century It also provides an extensive bibliography of international resources

The UN System and Cities in Global Governance Chadwick F. Alger, 2013-08-13 This is the second volume to commemorate the 90th birthday of the distinguished scholar Chadwick F Alger to honor his lifetime achievement in international relations and as President of the International Studies Association 1978 1979 After a brief introduction by Chad F Alger this volume presents six of his key texts on The UN System and Cities in Global Governance focusing on Cities as arenas for participatory learning in global citizenship The Impact of Cities on International Systems Perceiving Analysing and Coping With the Local Global Nexus The World Relations of Cities Closing the Gap Between Social Science Paradigms and Everyday Human Experience Japanese Municipal International Exchange and Cooperation in the Asia Pacific Opportunities and Challenges and on Searching for Democratic Potential in Emerging Global Governance What Are the Implications of Regional and Global Involvements of Local Governments Cases on Technology Enhanced Learning through Collaborative Opportunities Mukerji, Siran, Tripathi, Purnendu, 2010-03-31 The collection of cases in the book analyzes and evaluates how organizations and institutions of learning in the developing and developed world are adapting to technology enhanced learning environments and exploring transnational collaborative opportunities Provided by publisher A Pedagogy for Planetary Convivência Débora B. A. Junker, 2025-01-30 A Pedagogy for a Planetary Convivencia presents a comprehensive approach to education that aims to promote emotional resilience empathy and ethical consciousness The ultimate objective is to inspire us to imagine a more equitable world where indigenous people are respected and valued where cultural diversity is celebrated and where relationships between humans and the natural world are based on reciprocity and care Grounded on principles of critical pedagogy Freirean philosophy and liberation theology this book makes the case that advocating change without a sincere commitment to social justice is a betrayal of the millions of people who still face dehumanization that criticism without love is pointless and that denunciation without compassion is damaging Therefore the book invites to embrace hope in order to strengthen our relationships to embrace love in order to inspire our creativity and to embrace courage in order to express gestures of tenderness

Transformative Sustainability

Education Elizabeth A. Lange,2023-03-28 This book lays out the principles and practices of transformative sustainability education using a relational way of thinking and being Elizabeth A Lange advocates for a new approach to environmental and sustainability education that of rethinking the Western way of knowing and being and engendering a frank discussion about the societal elements that are generating climate environmental economic and social issues Highlighting the importance of Indigenous and life giving cultures the book covers educational theory transformation stories of adult learners social and economic critique and visions of changemakers Each chapter also has a strong pedagogical element with entry points for learners and embodied practices and examples of taking action at micro meso macro levels woven throughout Overall this book enacts a relational approach to transformative sustainability education that draws from post humanist theory process thought relational ontology decolonization theory Indigenous philosophy and a spirituality that builds a sense of sacred towards the living world Written in an imaginative storytelling manner this book will be a great resource for formal and nonformal environmental and sustainability educators
