Thanks to these generous donors for making the publication of the books in this series possible Lloyd E Cotsen The Maurice Amado Foundation National Endowment for the Humanities and the National Foundation for Jewish Culture Tales from Arab Lands presents tales from North Africa Yemen Lebanon Syria and Iraq in the latest volume of the most important collection of Jewish folktales ever published This is the third book in the multi volume series in the tradition of Louis Ginzberg s timeless classic Legends of the Jews The tales here and the others in this series have been selected from the Israel Folktale Archives IFA named in Honor of Dov Noy at The University of Haifa a treasure house of Jewish lore that has remained largely unavailable to the entire world until now Since the creation of the State of Israel the IFA has collected more than 20 000 tales from newly arrived immigrants long lost stories shared by their families from around the world The tales come from the major ethno linguistic communities of the Jewish world and are representative of a wide variety of subjects and motifs especially rich in Jewish content and context Each of the tales is accompanied by in depth commentary that explains the tale s cultural historical and literary background and its similarity to other tales in the IFA collection and extensive scholarly notes There is also an introduction that describes the culture and its folk narrative tradition a world map of the areas covered illustrations biographies of the collectors and narrators tale type and motif indexes a subject index and a comprehensive bibliography Until the establishment of the IFA we had had only limited access to the wide range of Jewish folk narratives Even in Israel the gathering place of the most wide ranging cross section of world Jewry these folktales have remained largely unknown Many of the communities no longer exist as cohesive societies in their representative lands the Holocaust migration and changes in living styles have made the continuation of these tales impossible This series is a monument to a rich but vanishing oral tradition This series is a monument to a rich but vanishing oral tradition

Conversations with Maurice Sendak Peter C. Kunze, 2016-08-10 Maurice Sendak 1928 2012 stands out as one of the most respected influential authors of the twentieth century Though primarily known as a children s book writer and illustrator he did not limit himself to these areas He saw himself first and foremost as an artist In this collection of interviews Sendak presents himself as a writer illustrator set designer and librettist From his early work with Randall Jarrell and Ruth Krauss through his later work with Tony Kushner and Spike Jonze Sendak worked as a collaborator with a passion for the arts The interviews here many of which are hard to find or previously unpublished span from 1966 through 2011 They show not only Sendak s shifting artistic interests but also changes in how he understood himself and his craft What emerges is a portrait of an author and an artist who was alternately solemn and playful congenial and irascible sophisticated and populist The man who showed millions of children and adults alike what s cooking in the night kitchen and where the wild things are Sendak remains an American original who redefined the picture book and changed children s literature and its readers forever S'more Secrets: Sleepover Stories Told in Darkness: Volume 2: For Tweens and Teens William A.
