countries were always a happy bunch waiving and calling greetings I had sorely missed their banter until now The autumn had been much better and so it was into winter and thus the visitors were back They were as friendly a bunch as all others I came upon one group dining on the toe path To my surprise they invited me to sit a while take part in some lunch and to sip a glass of wine I was even offered a choice red or white They enquired into my background after being enlightened they begged me to stay to tell of the events I had experienced I thus related a very strange episode that my wife and I had encountered at this very same spot it was some years ago now Plying me with more wine they clearly wished to hear my narrative This book contains those stories I informed them this would take some time as it involved several interesting revelations With more wine being poured I was thus implored to tell all in reality I was pleased to do so I invite you to join the festive party to hear this once in a lifetime stories      Six Nights of Mystery William Irish, 1950
