Talk Of God Royal Institute Of Philosophy Lectures Volume Two 1967 1968:

Talk of God, 1969 Royal Institute of Philosophy Lectures Royal Institute of Philosophy, 1969 Talk of God NA NA, 1969-02-01 Rainbow of Experiences, Critical Trust, and God Kai-man Kwan, 2011-08-11 Defends a new type of epistemology the Critical Trust Approach and then applies it to the experience of God in the contemporary multicultural context Personal Identity, the Self, and Ethics F. Santos, Santiago Sia, 2007-08-16 Going beyond the controversy surrounding personhood in non philosophical contexts this book defends the need for a credible philosophical conception of the person Engaging with John Locke Derek Parfit and P F Strawson the authors develop an original philosophical anthropology based on the work of Charles Hartshorne and A N Whitehead British Book News, 1969 Models for Divine Activity Ian T. Ramsey, 2011-06-07 This last book by the Bishop of Durham is the text of the Zenos Lectures that he gave in Chicago in 1966 In them Dr Ramsey applied his well known approach of models and disclosure situations to the doctrine of the Holy Spirit The first lecture considers the origin and use of the model of wind breath air from which the Spirit is named subsequent lectures consider the models of economy and presence In the discussion a number of important issues are touched on the personality of the Holy Spirit the ubiquity of God and the relationship of prayer to the presence of God The final lecture goes on to counter criticisms that have been made of Dr Ramsey s theology Are models and disclosures not a substitute for God Is not this approach virtually atheistic with perhaps not much virtual about it Because Dr Ramsey s writings have appeared in a great many books and journals it has also been thought fitting to include a comprehensive bibliography and this book ends with a complete list of all his published works Songs of Experience Martin Jay, 2005-01-10 Martin Jay is one of the most influential intellectual historians in contemporary America and here he shows once again a willingness to tackle the big issues in the Western cultural tradition A remarkable history of ideas about the nature of human experience Lloyd Kramer author of Threshold of a New World A magisterial study of one of the most elusive contested and pervasively important concepts of the Western philosophical tradition Ranging from epistemology and aesthetics to the philosophy of history religion and politics Songs of Experience brilliantly traces the major lines of theory and debate Insightful rich and masterfully narrated Jay s book sings with that well tempered voice of erudition synthetic intelligence and generous grace that has become his enviable trademark Richard Shusterman author of Pragmatist Aesthetics This illuminating provocative volume consolidates Martin Jay s standing as our leading modern intellectual historian Ranging sure footedly from ancient to postmodern discourse Jay offers finely balanced readings of thinkers who have wrestled with the elusive concept of experience Because Jay respects and presents so clearly and sympathetically positions different from his own Songs of Experience gives readers the resources necessary to embrace or resist his own bold interpretations of philosophers from Kant and Burke through Dilthey and Dewey to Foucault and Rorty This book will prove as indispensable to intellectual historians as the idea of experience itself James T Kloppenberg author of The Virtues of Liberalism Fifty Years of Philosophy of Religion Andries F. Sanders, Kristof De Ridder, 2007 The bibliography lists about 10 000 titles of monographs collections and articles in the field of the philosophy of religion and philosophical theology that appeared between 1955 and 2005 The majority of them are in the English language but publications in German Dutch and French are listed as well Though it is not claimed to be exhaustive the bibliography offers a fairly representative survey of scholarly work on the main topics of interest Publications have been systematically classified according to eleven main categories Introductions Surveys and Historical Issues Part I Religious Language Part II Religious Experience Part III Religious Epistemology Part IV Theism Part V Hermeneutics Part VI Religion and Science Part VII Religion and Aesthetics Part VIII Religion and Morality Part IX Religious Pluralism Part X and Feminist Philosophy of Religion Part XI Part III has been subdivided into Religious Experience and Mystical Experience Part VII into The Concept of God arguments for The Existence of God The Problem of Evil and Atheism and Part VII into General and Historical Issues Theological Issues and implications of Modern Physics Cosmology and Biology The bibliography will particularly be useful to scholars teachers and students in the philosophy of religion philosophical theology and systematic theology as well as to those who are interested professionally or otherwise in the results of academic scholarship in those fields Contemporary Critiques of Religion Kai Nielsen, 1971 Contemporary Critiques of Religion sustains a probing dialogue between belief and unbelief After isolating the central intellectual perplexities of Judaeo Christian belief it examines contemporary empiricist critiques of religion to reveal how essentially problematic is the mature Judaeo Christian concept of God Rebuttals to such an empiricist critique of religion are then considered in some detail In Chapter 5 a form of conceptual relativism is isolated and examined The implications of such a relativism it is argued are those of scepticism and not those of a total commitment to either belief or unbelief Finally a careful examination reveals the conceptual incoherencies of the logic of non anthropomorphic God talk Publisher

Resurrecting Jesus Dale C. Allison, Jr., 2005-08-18 Jesus remains a popular figure in contemporary culture and Allison remains one of our best interpreters He speaks around the country in a variety of venues on matters related to the study of the Historical Jesus In his new book he focuses on the historical Jesus and eschatology concluding that the Jesus was not a Hellenistic wonder worker or teacher of pious morality but an apocalyptic prophet In an opening chapter that is worth the price of admission Allison astutely and engagingly captures the history of the search for the historical Jesus He observes that many contemporary readings of Jesus shift the focus away from traditional theological Christological and eschatological concerns In provocative fashion He takes on not only the Jesus Seminar but also other Jesus interpreters such as N T Wright and Marcus Borg The Historical Jesus and the Final Judgment Sayings in Q Brian Han Gregg, 2006 Insisting that the potential historicity of Q's eschatological traditions be given due consideration Brian Gregg's study explores the content and authenticity of the final judgment sayings in Q in light of the historical Jesus BOOK JACKET Anthony C Thiselton and the Grammar of Hermeneutics Robert Knowles, 2014-07-08 A provisional and preliminary attempt to show how the formative hermeneutical thinking of Anthony C Thiselton once systematized and critiqued can begin to resolve the major problems found in the discipline of hermeneutics today most notably its varying disunities theoretical practical and inter disciplinary This book aims to show that the formative thinking of Anthony C Thiselton provides valuable insights for a programmatic construction towards a unified hermeneutical theory This construction provides powerful keys for unlocking six contemporary problems in hermeneutics disorganization complexity abstraction theoretical disunity on several levels inter disciplinary polarization and irresponsible interpretation Robert Knowles exhaustive analysis engages critically and creatively

Theology, Death and Dying Ray S. Anderson, 2012-04-14 How do we make sense of death in theology in philosophy in experience How do religions other than Christianity deal with death and with dying In the now predominantly secular societies of the West what are we to make of the theologies of death developed by writers such as Becker Hick Thieliicke and Macquarrie Ray Anderson tackles his subject with clarity and without sentimentality He discusses first the treatment and indeed the denial of death by contemporary Western society and its place in other religious traditions Going on to discuss the origins of a Christian theology of death he examines the legacy of Judaism and seeks to lay the foundations for a Christian anthropology in the unity of the body and soul Death he argues is alien to God s determination of our personhood Outlining a classic Christian understanding of the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ he explores the implications of the Passion for our own mortality Even if the sting of death has been removed the experience of dying and bereavement remains Ray Anderson considers pastoral approaches to dying in the light of his observations and arguments and makes his case for a reintegration of the experience of dying into our communities The Two Horizons Anthony C. Thiselton, 1980

Not Beyond Language Khay Tham Nehemiah Lim, 2021-07-12 The problem of speaking about God arises from the presumed notion that God is utterly transcendent and is wholly other from human existence Moreover a profound sense of mystery is held to surround God s being Even so Not Beyond Language maintains that it is still possible for human beings to express and describe God in words that language can bring genuine disclosure and understanding of the divine However given that religious language is problematic because inadequate those who engage in speaking about God must accept that the words they use cannot be pressed to yield precise definitions or complete explanations of the divine The author proposes a nuanced approach to the use of religious language which revolves more around meaning and relevance of the discourse about divine reality than objective claims about who or what God is Myth in old testament interpretation J.
