Talk of the Town Mrs. John Lane,1911 The Talk of the Town Ann C. Dean,2007 This study argues that in eighteenth century Britain the public sphere was a figure of speech created by juxtaposed images of more limited local and particular arenas of discussion In letters newspapers and books eighteenth century British writers described the public qualities of three different spaces court coffeehouse and meeting Writers referred to the proliferation of these social spaces describing multiple coffeehouses drawing rooms and meetings among which the customary language of each was circulated in repeated conversations and printed newspapers These multiple references created a set of interrelated competing and mutually defining metaphors and figurations figurative public spheres Identifying the relations between these metaphors requires work in an archive that crosses the boundaries between court coffeehouse and Parliament and between manuscript and print By following figures from one medium to another and by examining the contexts in which they were used it is possible to see a social imaginary emerging from the juxtapositions between them Ann C Dean is Associate Professor of English at the University of Southern Maine
