Spargo Mabbs has conducted with young people and parents in focus groups and school and college workshops to give a framework for tackling tough conversations about difficult things without judgement or anger. It gives context and insight based on the latest neuroscience findings on the teenage brain and importantly it gives hundreds of prompts and plenty of practical suggestions and strategies to make communication between parents and young people a two way street that builds the foundations for a strong relationship with your adult child. Covering everything from the small stuff like curfews and screen time to the tough stuff of sex self harm and suicide this is a warm compassionate and important book that draws on lived experience and the lives of young people as they are not as we think they might or should be. Conflict Resolution

Smarts Matt Doeden, 2012-01-01 Conflict nobody likes it. And from the hallways of your school to the family dinner table conflict can be hard to avoid. But conflict doesn't have to be all bad. If you handle a conflict well you might even come up with a win-win solution and everyone will walk away happy. Conflict management involves understanding the roots of conflict, opening the lines of communication and coming up with a solution that everyone can live with. This book explores conflict from all angles. You'll discover how the little seed of a misunderstanding can turn into a great big conflict. Conflict resolution strategies including compromise, negotiation, mediation and collaboration. How to be a good communicator and a great listener to resolve conflicts at school, at home and even online. Basic conflict outcomes including the magical win-win. Supplemented with articles and information from USA TODAY the Nation's No. 1 Newspaper. Conflict Resolution Smarts delivers solid advice and firsthand stories of real teens managing many of the same conflicts you are. Ready to wise up to conflict management? Read on.
