Talking About Cultural Diversity In Your Church Gift And Challenges:

Talking About Cultural Diversity in Your Church Michael V. Angrosino, 2001-09-24 In the Great Commission Jesus told his followers to go and make disciples of all nations But today you don't need to be a missionary in another country to come across different cultures In your neighborhood school workplace and shopping area you probably run across many people with backgrounds vastly different from your own To have an effective ministry in the U S today outside or inside the church Christians need to be aware of how people's culture affects the ways they think and live Talking about Cultural Diversity in Your Church gives classes workshops or small groups the opportunity to discuss issues of multiculturalism Presenting what culture means in the first part of the book shows how understanding and misunderstandings of culture affect American society This beginning section encourages readers to be aware of their own cultural assumptions and how these assumptions color relations with others It then highlights special skills for communicating between cultures and highlights the special challenges for religion in a pluralistic society But the heart of the book is eleven case studies with discussion questions These concrete cases allow participants to see about how their understandings of culture have real world implications And the discussion questions let participants talk in meaningful ways about these difficult issues If you want a useful discussion about multiculturalism in your congregation you should take a look at Talking about Cultural Diversity in Your Church Visit the author's web page

Talking about Cultural Diversity in Your Church Michael V. Angrosino, 2001 Congregational workshop leader Michael Angrosino gives down to earth examples and practical information to make discussion of these tough issues for congregations much easier Clergy and laity of any church that wants to embrace rather than avoid issues of diversity will gain much from this book

A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation's history study their community's demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further www.congregationalresources.org Richard Bass, 2004-12-30 An ever increasing number of resources compete for the attention of congregational leaders With a seemingly endless number of choices finding the best resource on a particular topic for a specific congregation is an often daunting challenge www.congregationalresources.org is an invaluable companion to the groundbreaking online version of Alban Institute's and Indianapolis Center for Congregations jointly researched and produced Congregational Resource Guide launched in 2001 and accessed by thousands of seekers each week The book conveniently and cogently puts the rich array of important resources into context by examining in depth the key books organizations Web sites and people that will help leaders gain an understanding of important issues facing their congregations The book features ten overviews of important topics by widely recognized experts in their fields including Amy Sherman on Community Ministry Tom Fischer on Congregational Health Lee Ramsey on Preaching Paul Chaffee on Leadership John Janka on Evaluation and Jean Trumbauer on Lay Ministry Each essay is accompanied by an annotated list of selected resources for researching further information Helpful guides for using these valuable resources to promote and encourage congregational understanding and transformation are also included Becoming a Multicultural Church Laurene Beth Bowers,2010-04-01 In ital Becoming a Multicultural Church ital Bowers reflects upon and shows how churches can benefit from the experience of First Congregational Church of Randolph Massachusetts em dash the church she pastors em dash once a historically traditional one social grouping church but now a multicultural church and one of the numerically largest churches in Randolph She offers practical strategies and explores the processes involved in a conversational style that will make it an easy read for pastors Reaching the City Gary Fujino,Timothy R. Sisk,Tereso C. Casino,2012-06-28 Rapid urbanization and globalization processes worldwide have changed the landscape of our times In Asia and Africa the number of urban dwellers increases by an average of one million per week according to the United Nations More than half of the globe s seven billion human beings now live in cities These realities have far reaching implications for mission in urban contexts at the start of the third millennium Reaching the City Reflections on Urban Mission for the Twenty first Century seeks to address the missiological challenges associated with this new world order Each author in this collection respectfully builds upon the significant contributions of seminal writers such as Ray Bakke Jacques Ellul Basil of Caesarea and others while making new and creative proposals for urban mission in our world today Beginning with the bigger picture of the global challenges of urbanization and moving through theological historical and educational perspectives this volume concludes with a rich bevy of case studies engaging these new realities of both North American and international cities to encourage a missional thrust to reach these communities Preaching with Cultural Intelligence Matthew D. Kim,2017-10-17 To preach effectively in today s world preachers need cultural intelligence They must build bridges between listeners who come from various denominations ethnicities genders locations religious backgrounds and more Experienced preacher and teacher Matthew Kim provides a step by step template for cross cultural hermeneutics and homiletics equipping preachers to reach their varied listeners in the church and beyond Each chapter includes questions for individual thought or group discussion The book also includes helpful diagrams and images a sample sermon and appendixes for exegeting listeners and for exploring cultural differences The Power of Stories Rev. Jacqueline J. Lewis,2010-09-01 Most congregational leaders find it difficult to resist the dominant cultural expectation that different cultural and ethnic groups should stick to themselves especially when it comes to church. But some congregational leaders have learned the secrets of breaking out of these expectations to bring together communities of faith that model God's radical inclusiveness. What makes the difference, Jacquie Lewis explains, is that it resides in the stories these leaders tell about who they themselves are and what the communities they lead are about. These leaders are able to embrace the multiple complex stories within these diverse communities, hearing in the many voices a particular echo of the living voice of the gospel. In this book, Lewis shares with the reader examples of congregational leaders who have successfully overcome the challenges of leading multicultural congregations and the lessons that can be learned from them. Jacqueline J. Lewis is Senior Minister for Vision, Worship, and the Arts at Middle Collegiate Church in New York.

Radical Welcome Stephanie Spellers, 2021-11-16. For the fifteenth anniversary of its publication, this revised edition features a new introduction from the author on the state of the church and its radical welcome today, along with new reflections on how it continues to reshape the church. This book is at once a theological, inspirational, and practical guide for congregations that want to move beyond diversity and inclusion to present a vision for the church of the future, one where the gifts, voices, and power of marginalized groups bring new life to the mainline church. Based on two years of work and over 200 interviews with people in congregations all around the United States, in urban, suburban, and rural settings, it asks the question: How do we face our fears and welcome transformation in order to become God's radically welcoming people? Each chapter introduces a particular congregation and the challenges it faced and lays out the theological underpinnings of tackling fears head-on to embrace change as a welcome part of community life. This new edition features essays from Michael B. Curry, Mark Bozzuti Jones, Jennifer Baskerville Burrows, and Mark Richardson.

1 + 1 = 1 Derek Chinn, 2012-11-12. The population of the United States is changing. By 2042, U.S. census figures indicate that the majority racial population will no longer be white. In addition, churches are dying as congregants age and fail to add younger members to sustain their ministry. These shifting demographics represent a significant challenge and opportunity for the church. Derek Chinn proposes an overlooked solution: join congregations together to create a multiracial church. For this unique concept, Chinn offers a biblically grounded and practical perspective on what it takes to make this ministry approach viable. The heart of this ministry approach is redemption of tired or shrinking ministries of assets that God has given His people to advance the local church and of brokenness due to racial and ethnic differences. This book is for church leaders, church planters, cross-cultural ministry leaders, and those involved with urban missions.

From Every People and Nation David M. Rhoads. A diverse group of New Testament scholars and theologians offer myriad paths to a better understanding of the Book of Revelation. They discuss topics such as Hispanic, Cuban American, and African American perspectives, ecological issues, postcolonial themes, and liberation theology. The book also provides a set of guidelines for intercultural Bible study. The volume's contributors include Brian K. Blount, Justo Gonzalez, Harry O. Maier, Clarice J. Martin, James Okoye, Tina Pippin, Pablo Richard, Barbara R. Rossing, Victor Westhelle, Khio Khng Yeo.

Christianity and Culture Martin S. Reed, 2002. In over 2,000 years Christianity has made the overwhelming impact on the culture of the Western world in particular But culture has also helped to shape the development and form of Christianity since the interaction of two such powerful phenomena cannot help but change the other This new book brings together over 1200 citations on Christianity and Culture which are indexed by subject title and author for easy access American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Taking Flight With Creativity Len Wilson,Jason Moore,2010-09-01 Pastors and church leaders in many congregations have attempted to form teams for the purpose of planning or designing worship Getting a group of people together in one room is fairly easy But whether large or small church staff or volunteer most discover that it is difficult to form a team that actually works Using the metaphor of early flight this resource analyzes how to be a part of a worship design team that works Major sections include discovering a strategic approach to worship tips for team composition a look at how to overcome a series of obstacles that frequently keep teams from finding success together and some of the usual mechanical difficulties that keep teams grounded Building a Civilization of Love Harold Burke-Sivers,2023-10-24 A worldly political response to racism is not enough This book is a Catholic Christian response to the epidemic of racism firmly rooted in the Scriptures the natural law the Church s Tradition and our identity as children of God But what is racism Is it just prejudice Deacon Harold Burke Sivers carefully distinguishes the sin of racism from the kind of instinctive bias that marks all fallen mankind in order to help us find a path to deeper unity Building a Civilization of Love takes an honest look at Critical Race Theory Liberation Theology and the Black Lives Matter Movement weighing their merits Burke Sivers asks in each case whether there might be anything contained in them that Catholics can use to facilitate the healing and reconciliation of racial division A truly Catholic response to racism must begin locally in our own parishes towns and homes in the here and now Ameliorating racism will require hard work humility vulnerability sacrifice and love But by admitting our own weaknesses and opening ourselves to God s mercy we can bring Christ s healing grace to our world Christ Our Hope Pope Benedict XVI,2008 A complete set of Pope Benedict XVI s addresses speeches homilies and press conference during his visit to the United States April 15 20 2008 Includes reflections on the papal visit by the Apostolic Nuncio to the United Nations and the Archbishops of Washington and New York
