The Lonely American Jacqueline Olds, MD,Richard S. Schwartz, MD,2010-02-01 In today s world it is more acceptable to be depressed than to be lonely yet loneliness appears to be the inevitable byproduct of our frenetic contemporary lifestyle According to the 2004 General Social Survey one out of four Americans talked to no one about something of importance to them during the last six months Another remarkable fact emerged from the 2000 U S Census more people are living alone today than at any point in the country s history fully 25 percent of households consist of one
