"Sisters are like guardian angels, always watching over each other with love and care."

Sisters In The Name Of Love:

In the Name of Love Heather Fraser, 2008-10-07 Although love is the hallmark of humanity it is not widely discussed in social work and other related professions with respect to its potential connection to abuse In this groundbreaking book the author argues that while love and abuse should not co exist they often do Using a feminist narrative approach stories about love abuse and social work are told with the purpose of understanding domestic violence and other forms of abuse Based on interviews with 84 women of varying ages in Canada and Australia the author shows how the pain and shame of intimate abuse can leave its mark on the bodies minds and souls of victims survivors long after abusive episodes have ended Additionally Fraser also discusses the importance of hope enlightened witnesses income support and educational opportunities for women who refuse to renounce love relationships altogether but are instead trying to foster relationships that are respectful as well as erotic

Redeemed in the Name of Love Leonard D. Lister, 2010-05-28 Every day is a blessing Even when a storm approaches life takes a turn but as God promised we will always see the rainbow after the storm stretched out through the clouds God knows what we can handle but sometimes we forget what God can handle As a father to a son and a mother to a daughter love and faith is so strong and merciful God is mercy and love gentle but strong he brings joy and correction and he comforts the soul and gives correction I feel that God has brought me through the trails and walked with me through many storms to see who I was before I could see that which is ahead Love From Above Hear My Cry and now Redeem In the Name of Love has centered my heart even more towards God and His Son Jesus Christ As much as we try to find love as we try to live a perfect life and as we try to become that perfect christian we find that we need God even more God has blessed me with so much but I still fall short of His glory my heart burns with the desire to love Him that loved me first God told me to keep my eyes on him I pray that God continues to use me and these poems to touch your heart as they have touched mine
