Realizing the Dream of R.A. Kartini Joost Coté, 2008 Realizing the Dream of R.A. Kartini Her Sisters Letters from Colonial Java presents a unique collection of documents reflecting the lives attitudes and politics of four Javanese women in the early twentieth century Joost J. Cot translates the correspondence between Raden Ajeng Kartini Indonesia's first feminist and her sisters revealing for the first time her sisters contributions in defining and carrying out her ideals With this collection Cot aims to situate Kartini's sisters within the more famous Kartini narrative and indirectly to situate Kartini herself within a broader narrative The letters reveal the emotional lives of these modern women and their concerns for the welfare of their husbands and the success of their children in rapidly changing times While by no means radical nationalists and not yet extending their horizons to the possibility of an Indonesian nation these members of a new middle class nevertheless confidently express their belief in their own national identity Realizing the Dream of R A Kartini is essential reading for scholars of Indonesian history providing documentary evidence of the culture of modern urban Java in the late colonial era and an insight into the ferment of the Indonesian nationalist movement in which these women and their husbands played representative roles Death and Burial Lore in the English and Scottish Popular Ballads Lowry Charles Wimberly, 1927
