Speak Palestine Speak Again:

Speak, Bird, Speak Again Ibrahim Muhawi, Sharif Kanaana, 2021-11-02 Over the course of several years Ibrahim Muhawi and Sharif Kanaana collected tales from the regions of the Galilee Gaza and the West Bank and selected those that best represent the Palestinian Arab folk narrative tradition Combining their expertise in English literature and anthropology they bring to these folktales an integral method of study that unites a sensitivity to language with a deep appreciation for culture Great care has been taken with the translations to maintain the original flavor humor and cultural nuances in tales that are at once earthy and whimsical and that also parallel stories found in the larger Arab folk tradition Provided by publisher God Speaks Again in Palestine Pearl Nixon Sigler, 1935 Palestine Speaks Mateo Hoke, Cate Malek, 2021-10-05 The occupation of the West Bank and Gaza has been one of the world's most widely reported yet least understood human rights crises for over four decades In this oral history collection men and women from Palestine including a fisherman a settlement administrator and a marathon runner describe in their own words how their lives have been shaped by the historic crisis Other narrators include ABEER a young journalist from Gaza City who launched her career by covering bombing raids on the Gaza Strip IBTISAM the director of a multi faith children's center in the West Bank whose dream of starting a similar center in Gaza has so far been hindered by border closures GHASSAN an Arab Christian physics professor and activist from Bethlehem who co founded the International Solidarity Movement For more than six decades Israel and Palestine have been the global focal point of intractable conflict one that has led to one of the world's most widely reported yet least understood human rights crises In their own words men and women from West Bank and Gaza describe how their lives have been shaped by the conflict Here are stories that humanize the oft ignored violations of human rights that occur daily in the occupied Palestinian territories The Folktales of Palestine Farah Aboubakr, 2019-03-21 Folktales are instrumental in ensuring the survival of oral traditions and strengthening communal bonds Both the stories and the process of storytelling itself help to define social cultural and political identity For Palestinians the threat of losing their heritage has engendered a sense of urgency among storytellers and Palestinian folklorists Yet there has been remarkably little academic scholarship dedicated to the tradition Farah Aboubakr here analyses a selection of folktales edited compiled and translated by Ibrahim Muhawi and Sharif Kanaana in Speak Bird Speak Again 1989 In addition to the folktales themselves Muhawi and Kanaana's collection is renowned for providing readers with extensive folkloric historical and anthropological annotations Here for the first time the folktales and the compilers work on them are the subject of scholarly analysis Synthesising various disciplines including memory studies gender studies and social movement studies Aboubakr uses the collection to understand the politics of storytelling and its impact on Palestinian identity In particular the book draws attention to the female storytellers who play an essential role in transmitting and preserving collective memory and culture The book is an important step towards analysing a significant genre of Palestinian literature and will be relevant to scholars of Palestinian politics and popular culture gender studies and memory studies and those interested in folklore and oral literature

Sir Ronald Storrs Christopher Burnham, 2024-09-09 This volume utilises the personal papers of Sir Ronald Storrs as well as other archival materials to make a microhistorical investigation of his period as Governor of Jerusalem between 1917 and 1926 It builds upon Edward Said's work on the Orientalist determining imprint by arguing that Storrs took a deeply personal approach to governing the city one determined by his upbringing his education in the English private school system and his service as a British official in Colonial Egypt It recognises the influence of these experiences on Storrs' perceptions of and attitudes towards Jerusalem identifying how these formative years manifested themselves on the city and in the Governor's interactions with Jerusalemites of all backgrounds and religious beliefs It also highlights the restrictions placed on Storrs approach by his British superiors Palestinians and the Zionist movement alongside the limitations imposed by his own attitudes and worldview Placing Storrs personality at the centre of discussion on early Mandate Jerusalem exposes a nuanced and complex picture of how personality and politics collided to influence its everyday life and built environment The book is aimed at historians and students of the late Ottoman Empire and British Mandate in Palestine colonialism and imperialism and microhistory Memories on the Move Monika Palmberger, Jelena Tošić, 2017-03-03

Through a series of excellent essays this volume uses concrete ethnographic analyses of memory practices in different parts of the globe to offer theoretical reflections on how memory shapes and is shaped by mobility in time and space Marianne Hirsch Columbia University USA Memories on the Move is a brilliant edited volume that fills an important gap in the field of memory studies as it weaves together issues of mobility and remembering Drawing on fine grained ethnographical cases it offers a rich and complex portrait of mnemonic constructions in the context of forced migration exile and transnationalism It is clearly a must read for anthropologists sociologists historians and political scientists as well as for all scholars interested in the contemporary dynamics of memory identity and mobility David Berliner Universit Libre de Bruxelles Belgium This thought provoking volume disentangles ethnographically the complexity of meaning making practices of memory forgetting in various contexts of mobility Noel B Salazar University of Leuven Belgium Bringing together vivid ethnographic material this book opens up a timely conversation between memory and mobility migration studies It goes beyond the idea of the nation state as the primary unit of analysis to explore how people on the move use different forms and media of remembering to make sense of their lives and act as political subjects Investigating when and by what means people on the move remember and communicate memories in the context of various forms of mobility the authors examine photographs films the reinhabiting of pre exilic homes pseudo historical performances transgenerational mnemonic gatherings and transnational political activism This edited collection will appeal to scholars of anthropology sociology political science human geography history and oral history The Object of Memory Susan Slyomovics, 1998-06 Well researched and written with passion and elegance International Journal of Middle East Studies No Place for Grief Lotte Buch Segal, 2016-06-10 Westerners know Palestine through images of war and people in immediate distress Yet this focus has as its consequence that other less spectacular stories of daily distress are rarely told Those seldom noticed are the women behind the men who engage in armed resistance against the military occupation wives of the Palestinian prisoners in Israeli detention and the widows of the martyrs In Palestine being related to a detainee serving a sentence for participation in the resistance activities against Israel is a source of pride Consequently the wives of detainees are expected to sustain these relationships through steadfast endurance no matter the effects upon the marriage or family Often people media and academic studies address the dramatic violence and direct affliction of the Palestinians Lotte Buch Segal takes a different approach and offers a glimpse of the lives and the contradictory emotions of the families of both detainees and martyrs through an in depth ethnographic investigation No Place for Grief asks us to think about what it means to grieve when that which is grieved does not lend itself to a language of loss and mourning What does it mean to endure when ordinary life is engulfed by the emotional labor required to withstand the pressures placed on Palestinian families by sustained imprisonment and bereavement Despite an elaborate repertoire of narrative styles laments poetry and performance of bodily gestures through which mourning can be articulated including the mourning tied to a political cause Buch Segal contends that these forms of expression are inadequate to the sorrow endured by detainees wives No Place for Grief reveals a new language that describes the entanglement of absence and intimacy endurance and everyday life and advances an understanding of loss mourning and grief in contemporary Palestine Encyclopedia of the Palestinians Philip Mattar,2005 Presents the history of modern Palestine and biographies of important Palestinians Pay No Heed to the Rockets Marcello di Cintio,2018-09-04 With humility respect and great sensitivity he seeks out writers people skilled at telling stories and asks them to narrate their own situations The result is a document that captures not only the manifold sorrows and injustices of Palestinian life but something of its beauty its joys and its yearning Ben Ehrenreich author of The Way to the Spring Taking the long route through the West Bank into Jerusalem across Israel and finally into Gaza Marcello Di Cintio meets with Palestinian poets authors librarians and booksellers to learn about Palestine through their eyes Pay No Heed to the Rockets offers a look at life in contemporary Palestine through the lens of its literary culture one that begins with art rather than with war
