Speaker In Dreams:

The Speaker's Complete Program Charles Haddon Spurgeon, 1891 Space in Tense Kyung-Sook Chung, 2012-07-18

This monograph explores the tense aspect mood and evidentiality of Korean which has a rich verbal inflectional system and proposes novel treatments within the framework of compositional semantics One of the major contributions is the demonstration that Korean has two types of deictic tense simple deictic and spatial deictic tense Spatial deictic tense refers to the notion of the speaker's perceptual field or deictic range as well as to temporality functioning to set up a condition for a systematic evidential distinction The research in this volume shows that the basic paradigm of evidentiality of Korean derives from the standard TMA system combined with the notion of space This volume also shows that perfect and past tense utilize different primitives The intended readership of this volume extends beyond Koreanists to scholars interested specifically in tense mood aspect and evidentiality as well as in general theories of grammar and semantics pragmatics A Mirror for

Expressive Networks Matthew Kilbane, 2025-06-10 Expressive Networks convenes an urgent conversation on digital media and the social life of contemporary poetry Tracing how poems circulate through online spaces and how capitalized platforms have come to pattern the reading and writing of poetry contributors emphasize both the expressivist cast of digital literary culture and the deep running ambivalence that characterizes aesthetic and critical responses to platformed cultural production The volume features chapters on Pan African spoken word programs Singaporean Facebook groups decolonial hemispheric networks and Japanese media critical poetics as well as platforms such as Twitter X Instagram and Amazon Though contributors write from a variety of methodological positions and address themselves to a range of archives they share the primary conviction that the impact of Web 2.0 on literary practice is far reaching far from self evident and far more variegated and unpredictable than easy summations of social media's influence suggest Expressive Networks asks after poetry's present and future by examining what poems themselves express about the social make up of networked platforms Edited by Matthew Kilbane with contributions from Cameron Awkward Rich Micah Bateman Andrew Campana Sumita Chakraborty Scott Challener C. Reconstructing Hybridity Joel Kuortti, Jopi Nyman, 2007 This interdisciplinary collection of critical articles seeks to reassess the concept of hybridity and its relevance to post colonial theory and literature The challenging articles written by internationally acclaimed scholars discuss the usefulness of the term in relation to such questions as citizenship whiteness studies and transnational identity politics In addition to developing theories of hybridity the articles in this volume deal with the role of hybridity in a variety of literary and cultural phenomena in geographical settings ranging from the Pacific to native North America The collection pays particular attention to questions of hybridity migrancy and diaspora 21 | 19 Alexandra Manglis,Kristen Case,2019-08-13 Essays on the modern relevance of Thoreau Whitman Dickinson and more suggest the ways poetry might be both agitator and balm in times of social crisis Poets Writers The nineteenth century is often viewed as a golden age of American literature a historical moment when national identity was emergent and ideals such as freedom democracy and individual agency were promising even if belied in reality by violence and hypocrisy The writers of this American Renaissance Thoreau Fuller Whitman Emerson and Dickinson among many others produced a body of work that has been both celebrated and contested by following generations As the twenty first century unfolds in a United States characterized by deep divisions diminished democracy and dramatic transformation of identities the editors of this singular book approached a dozen North American poets asking them to engage with texts by their predecessors in a manner that avoids both aloofness from the past and too easy elegy The resulting essays delving into topics including race and gun violence dwell provocatively on the border between the lyrical and the scholarly casting fresh critical light on the golden age of American literature and exploring a handful of texts not commonly included in its canon A polyvocal collection that reflects the complexity of the cross temporal encounter it enacts 21 19 offers a re reading of the American Renaissance and new possibilities for imaginative critical practice today Displaying a sophisticated sense of poetics as well as a good grasp of history and its implications for the present moment the editors have done a remarkable job of bringing together such a challenging collection Harvard Review

Bouquet Phineas Garrett,1910 Forming Sleep Nancy L. Simpson-Younger,Margaret Simon,2020-04-13 Forming Sleep asks how biocultural and literary dynamics act together to shape conceptions of sleep states in the early modern period Engaging with poetry drama and prose largely written in English between 1580 and 1670 the essays in this collection highlight period discussions about how seemingly insentient states might actually enable self formation Looking at literary representations of sleep through formalism biopolitics Marxist theory trauma theory and affect theory this volume envisions sleep states as a means of defining the human condition both literally and metaphorically The contributors examine a range of archival sources including texts in early modern faculty psychology printed and manuscript medical treatises and physicians notes and printed ephemera on pathological sleep through the lenses of both classical and contemporary philosophy Essays apply these frameworks to genres such as drama secular lyric prose treatise epic and religious verse Taken together these essays demonstrate how early modern depictions of sleep shape and are shaped by the philosophical medical political and above all formal discourses through which they are articulated With this in mind the question of form merges considerations of the physical and the poetic with the spiritual and the secular highlighting the pervasiveness of sleep states as a means by which to reflect on the human condition In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Brian Chalk Jennifer Lewin Cassie Miura Benjamin Parris Giulio Pertile N Amos Rothschild Garret A Sullivan Jr and Timothy A Turner

Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory Mathilde Köstler, 2022-12-19 How does Cajun literature emerging in the 1980s represent the dynamic processes of remembering in Cajun culture Known for its hybrid constitution and deeply ingrained oral traditions Cajun culture provides an ideal testing ground for investigating the collective memory of a group In particular francophone and anglophone Cajun texts by such writers as Jean Arceneaux Tim Gautreaux Jeanne Castille Zachary Richard Ron Thibodeaux Darrell Bourque and Kirby Jambon reveal not only a shift from an oral to a written tradition They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory The Speaker's Garland and Literary Bouquet Combining 100 Choice Selections Phineas Garrett, 1876
