Getting Real Gary Tyra, 2018-02-08 Some reputable sociological research indicates that a surprising number of evangelical churchgoers are living out a version of the Christian life that s more informed by the values of the surrounding culture than by the discipleship teachings of Jesus and his apostles Viewing the cause of this disturbing trend in the church to be a discipleship deficit that s exacerbated by a pneumatological deficit Gary Tyra has written a book that addresses both In this work Tyra encourages evangelical Christians of all stripes to become more fully aware of the tremendous difference it makes when the Holy Spirit is experienced in ways that are real and existentially impactful rather than merely theoretical conceptual and or ritualistic Intended to be read by church leaders as well as by students in Christian colleges and seminaries the message here is that the cure for the ministry malady currently confronting us is the recovery of a robust fully Trinitarian doctrine of the Spirit A pneumatological realism says Tyra combined with an understanding of just how important a spiritual moral and missional faithfulness is to a genuine Christian discipleship can revitalize the lives of individual Christians and churches making it possible for them to reach their post Christian peers for Christ

Preaching Justice James M. Childs, Jr., 2000-03-01 The principal concern of this book is not complex theoretical discussions of justice so common to the discipline of ethics but how working for justice fits into the church s mission and especially into its preaching An opening chapter sets forth a biblical and theological basis for the conviction that justice is at the heart of the church s mission and witness Then follows a chapter on preaching that distinguishes between merely moralizing about justice and genuinely preaching it The remaining chapters in the book speak of preaching justice in dialogue with current contextual realities such as 1 the racism of our American context 2 the church s pentecostal heritage of communicating in and through all cultures 3 the fact that much of the injustice in our society is a by product of greed in its individual and enculturated manifestations and 4 the need to deal appropriately and faithfully with the multicultural context of today A concluding chapter brings the preacher back into the context of the church and its gospel foundations that is the source of preaching justice and walking together with the people of God in quest of it James M Childs is the Joseph A Sittler Professor of Theology and Ethics and Academic Dean at Trinity Lutheran Seminary Columbus Ohio He is the author of Faith Formation and Decision Ethics in the Community of Promise 1991 and Ethics in Business Faith at Work 1995 For Clergy seminarians homileticians ethicists peace and justice readerships students of mission and modern culture

Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku, 2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God's saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God's image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God

Ethical Approaches to Preaching John S. McClure, 2021-02-23 Different ethical situations require different homiletical responses John McClure organizes recent literature on ethics and preaching into four ethical approaches Does your situation require public moral leadership Then a communicative ethic is best Does your situation require the development of countercultural moral character Then a witness ethic is best Does your situation require ethical consciousness raising and organizing for social justice Then a liberationist ethic is best Does your situation require genuine moral conversation and the discernment of shared commitments in spite of our differences Then a hospitality ethic is best Each ethical approach is briefly and carefully explored correlated with appropriate contexts and situations and demonstrated with model sermons The result is a useful handbook for quickly discerning what ethical approach is needed how to preach that approach and what to expect as a result

Preaching Ethically Ronald D. Sisk, 2007-12-17 How do clergy preach to meet the legitimate needs of their congregation and live up to standards of professionalism and personal integrity Preaching Ethically offers guidelines for preaching in light of a range of factors that might tempt a preacher to misuse the pulpit How do you preach about controversial issues What do you say from the pulpit when your marriage is in trouble What are the ethics of preaching in times of local or national crisis How do you draw from resources found on the Internet and elsewhere without plagiarizing or misleading listeners about the source of the materials How do you write a sermon when you know very little about a subject Why and how do you feed a congregation a balanced sermonic diet To be true to ourselves and our calling says Sisk we must examine how the many factors that can influence our preaching come into play the calling to preach to gospel compels us to preach in ways that keep the gospel foremost treat the congregation fairly and are true to our own convictions and our personal integrity theology of preaching that combines the why and the what with the how and whom of preaching Practicing the Preaching Life unites Christian practices contextual virtues and the best of homiletical pedagogy to pave the way to a beautiful preaching life Preaching is best learned as a formative Christian practice embedded within a web of other Christian practices that form a way of life from which great sermons emerge Therefore preaching requires not only a way of speaking well but also a way of living well This embedded nature of preaching requires the enrollment of Christian practices in the formation of the preacher and the pursuit of contextual virtues for preaching that avoid cultural relativism on the one hand and cultural imperialism on the other These requirements lead to a new vision for the preaching classroom the rhythms of the preaching life and the definition of what it means to be a good preacher The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice Faith and Fragmentation J.
