The Ministry of Louis Farrakhan in the Nation of Islam Dawn-Marie Gibson, 2023-12-14 In the first scholarly biography of Minister Farrakhan leader of the controversial religious movement the Nation of Islam NOI Dawn Marie Gibson challenges popular portrayals of Farrakhan in American media Placing Farrakhan s life and leadership in historical context she traces his evolution from a fiery Black Nationalist in 1960s Harlem to a respected leader in sections of the USA and abroad and uncovers Farrakhan s work in rebuilding the NOI s reputation following Malcolm X s assassination Archival material includes FBI s files on the NOI and its leaders Farrakhan s writings in the Muhammad Speaks and The Final Call newspapers and lectures and interviews from the late 1970s to the present day Excerpts from first hand interviews from NOI officials pastors imams and community groups provide important insights into Farrakhan's religious life Perspectives on the Nation of Islam Dawn-Marie Gibson, Herbert Berg, 2017-02-17 New Perspectives on the Nation of Islam contributes to the ongoing dialogue about the nature and influence of the Nation of Islam NOI bringing fresh insights to areas that have previously been overlooked in the scholarship of Elijah Muhammad s NOI the Imam W D Mohammed community and Louis Farrakhan's Resurrected NOI Bringing together contributions that explore the formation practices and influence of the NOI this volume problematizes the history of the movement its theology and relationships with other religious movements Contributors offer a range of diverse perspectives making connections between the ideology of the NOI and gender dietary restrictions and foodways the internationalization of the movement and the civil rights movement This book provides a state of the art overview of current scholarship on the Nation of Islam and will be relevant to scholars of American religion and history Islamic studies and African American Studies A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women Bayyinah S. Jeffries, 2014-04-04 A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women African American Muslim Women in the Movement for Black Self Determination 1950 1975 challenges traditional notions and interpretations of African American particularly women who joined the Original Nation of Islam during the Civil Rights Black Power era This book is the first major investigation of the subject that engages a wide scope of women from The Nation and utilizes a wealth of primary documents and personal interviews to reveal the importance of women in this community Jeffries reveals that women were respected in the movement and maintained a very clear and often sought after voice in the advancement of the Original Nation of Islam A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women replaces the typical portrait of the subservient and irrelevant African American Muslim woman with a far more accurate picture of their integral leadership and substantial contributions to the rise of Islam and black consciousness in the self determination movement in the United States and beyond during the Civil Rights Black Power era Barer of the Ghost Nation John Steiner, 2013-02-25 Wanniukaga is the last of his people No one else carries on his cultural traditions It was the end of the world for the healer and spiritual leader He is four hundred years old and he is not alone Afflicted by vampirism from those who slaughtered his nation Wanniukaga is further burdened
