Are you one of the newly wealthy with an interest in giving back an heir to money you'd like to share with a favorite cause or simply someone who would like to do good in your community? There are more opportunities than ever for people of every financial station to make a difference through charitable giving. But how do you choose among the many options available and how do you know which type of gift is best for you? Invest in Charity: A Donor's Guide to Charitable Giving will teach you everything you need to know to devise and follow an effective charitable giving plan. It explains how to find the right charity, understand the tax estate and financial considerations and select a gift, whether it's a one time cash gift or a lifelong annuity. Covering everything from researching the legitimacy of a nonprofit organization to navigating the tax and estate laws that apply to you, this guide will help you make your bequest with complete confidence that it's right for your charity and for you.

The Care & Feeding of Volunteers Bill Wittich, 2000. The Care Feeding of Volunteers has evolved from a series of successful seminars attended by thousands of people across the United States and into Europe. In these sessions Bill has presented unorthodox ways of working with volunteers. They have attempted to change the paradigm of how America thinks about managing volunteers. In this book Bill will challenge you to consider applying many of the leadership strategies that are working in corporate America to your nonprofit arena. The Care Feeding of Volunteers will show you how to find and attract today's volunteers into your organization. It's a new millennium and tomorrow's volunteers will not respond to yesterday's management thinking but will be looking for an agency that respects their energy, passion and talents.

Nonprofit Boards That Work Maureen K. Robinson, 2001-06-01. Praise for Nonprofit Boards That Work: This book offers a refreshing and candid look at the challenges of nonprofit boards. It moves away from theoretical frameworks to take you inside the real world of nonprofit organizations. A must for any executive director who needs reassurance that building effective boards is tough work but well worth the effort. Sherry Rockey, Executive Director International Women's Media Foundation. Maureen Robinson is uniquely qualified to help us understand the issues related to boards that are effective, those that are not, and why. It is certain that board members, potential board members, and executive directors who read this book will better understand their roles and responsibilities and will be better able to avoid common pitfalls. As a result, the impact of their efforts on those whom their organizations exist to serve will be enhanced. Ron Burkard, Executive Director World Neighbors. As more than 10 million people in the United States alone say yes to board service, they also expect to see their time and talents used effectively. This invaluable book presents a straightforward approach to understanding the role of the board, tailoring its work to meet the needs of specific organizations and creating a culture of board productivity that makes participation rewarding for board members as well as the organizations they serve. Nonprofit Boards That Work distinguishes between theory and practice and encourages boards to explore how they genuinely add value to the work of the organization. Goes beyond the hows and whys of nonprofit governance to provide frank advice and real world examples of what works, what doesn't, what requires a miracle, and what can be achieved through diligent and deliberate effort. Offers practical yet flexible strategies that can be tried by any nonprofit board, whatever its current effectiveness, and much more to guide nonprofit organizations and their boards toward accomplishing the goals they seek.
