Specifying Black Women Writing The American Experience Wisconsin Project On American Writers:

Specifying Susan Willis, 1987 Focusing on Zola Neale Hurston Paule Marshall Toni Morrison Alice Walker and Toni Cade Bambara this book explores both the ways in which black women's fictions have been shaped by the history of the United States and the ways in which they intervene in that history She sees the transition from an agrarian to an urban society as the critical moment of that history and argues that writings by black women articulate that change in their content as well as form ISBN 0 299 10890 2 19 95 American Women Writers, Poetics, and the Nature of Gender Study Maryann

Pasda DiEdwardo, 2016-12-14 This volume studies processes of creating voices of the past to analyze and to juxtapose discussing the nature of the educational community viewed through feminist theory to reveal hidden ideas surrounding stereotypes gender status and power in the postcolonial era The contributions brought together here explore the various facets of language to focus on metaphorical grammatical constructions unique and specific with form and function They interpret various works to capture the essence of style as well as rhetorical function of basic structure of grammar diction and syntax in a literary work as message and meaning Furthermore the book also discusses useful pedagogical and theoretical processes used by the literary scholar concerning the power of writing for cultural change As such the book will appeal to those who wish to heal through writing The proceeds of the book support the authors local soup kitchen and crisis centers for domestic abuse The American Evasion of Philosophy Cornel West, 1989-05-09 Taking Emerson as his starting point Cornel West's basic task in this ambitious enterprise is to chart the emergence development decline and recent resurgence of American pragmatism John Dewey is the central figure in West's pantheon of pragmatists but he treats as well such varied mid century representatives of the tradition as Sidney Hook C Wright Mills W E B Du Bois Reinhold Niebuhr and Lionel Trilling West's genealogy is ultimately a very personal work for it is imbued throughout with the author's conviction that a thorough reexamination of American pragmatism may help inspire and instruct contemporary efforts to remake and reform American society and culture West may well be the pre eminent African American intellectual of our generation The Nation The American Evasion of Philosophy is a highly intelligent and provocative book Cornel West gives us illuminating readings of the political thought of Emerson and James provides a penetrating critical assessment of Dewey his central figure and offers a brilliant interpretation appreciative yet far from uncritical of the contemporary philosopher and neo pragmatist Richard Rorty What shines through throughout the work is West's firm commitment to a radical vision of a philosophic discourse as inextricably linked to cultural criticism and political engagement Paul S Boyer professor emeritus of history University of Wisconsin Madison Wisconsin Project on American Writers Frank Lentricchia General Editor Reading Faulkner Wesley Morris, Barbara Alverson Morris, 1989 The general argument advanced by the Morrises in this ambitious work revolves around the idea that William Faulkner is deeply critical of the prevailing Southern myth and discourse furthermore that his narratives are an attempt to discover and amplify alternative voices within that dominant milieu Those voices and the stories they tell are most often those of the unprivileged in race class and gender the black the poor white the woman the neurotic and so forth who act out the disintegration of Southern culture even as they may be said to hold it together in a communal act of mythmaking This reading thus makes the case a largely revisionary one for Faulkner as a fully engaged political writer a writer embroiled in the process of the subversion and dissolution not only of dominant Southern myth but of dominant Southern reality as well Structured in the way Faulkner imagined his entire fictional universe as a single narrative Reading Faulkner's incremental design results in a story that has much of the drive and force of Faulkner's story itself

African-American Literature Paul Q. Tilden, 2003 Having its origins in the slave narratives and the folktales transmitted orally during that period the literature of the African American has been rich and varied Beginning with the first published work of fiction Clotel Or the President's Daughter in 1853 continuing under the influence of W E B Du Bois during the first part of this century and reaching a flowering during the Harlem Renaissance major contributions have been made to American literature Today African American writers such as Toni Morrison Alex Haley and Maya Angelou are recognised as among the most significant and popular authors in this country This new book presents an important overview of African American literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography with easy access provided by title subject and author indexes

F.O. Matthiessen and the Politics of Criticism William E. Cain, 1988 F O Matthiessen remains one of America's leading twentieth century critics in part because the problems he and his contemporaries struggled with remain ours today William E Cain studies Matthiessen's career with careful attention to biographical institutional literary and political contexts He considers Matthiessen's many reviews and essays on literature and deals sympathetically but critically with Matthiessen's attitudes toward the Cold War as revealed in his memoir From the Heart of Europe Cain draws connections between Matthiessen's criticism and the influence of significant political movements like the Popular Front of the 1930s the Progressive Party and Henry Wallace's campaign for the presidency in 1948 Analyzing specific texts by Thoreau James Dreiser and Melville he confronts the difficult and highly contested relationships between literary criticism and politics scholarship and the public sphere pedagogy and social activism He suggests that critics need to acknowledge the primacy of their political commitments and should proceed to teach and write accordingly This argument certain to prove a controversial one will spark extensive debate and discussion about the theory and practice of intellectual work All students and scholars of English and American literature American studies black studies and American history will welcome this original and stimulating study the first to treat Matthiessen in fully detailed social historical and political contexts Lionel Trilling Daniel T. O'Hara, 1988 Daniel T O Hara reads the career of Trilling as a single completely comprehensive work of self fashioning The intention of such work says O Hara from the beginning and throughout Trilling's intellectual life was to create a self that when confronted with the great achievement of another mind was capable of imaginative sympathy and not solely resentful critique In order to reach that goal however Trilling had to adopt one of the conventional masks available to the intellectual in modern culture and adapt it to his needs and to those of his liberal time Black Women Writers and the American Neo-Slave Narrative Elizabeth A. Beaulieu, 1999-03-30 The neo slave narrative is an important development in American literary history and has serious revisionist intentions at its foundation This book examines how contemporary African American women writers have shaped the genre These authors have written neo slave narratives to reinscribe history from the perspective of the African American woman most specifically the nineteenth century enslaved mother The writers considered in this study Sherley Anne Williams Toni Morrison J California Cooper Gayl Jones and Octavia Butler explore American slavery through the lens of gender both to interrogate the myth that enslaved women denied the privilege of having a gender identity by the institution of slavery were in fact genderless and to celebrate the acts of resistance which enabled enslaved women to mother in the fullest sense of the term The volume begins with an overview of historical representations of slavery in America from the slave narrative itself to the revisionist scholarship of the 1960s The book then examines several individual neo slave narratives such as Margaret Walker s Jubilee 1966 Williams Dessa Rose 1986 Morrison s Beloved 1987 Cooper s Family 1991 Jones Corregidora 1975 and Butler s Kindred 1979 What the women in these novels have in common is the fact that they mother what the writers have in common is a tendency to utilize subversive strategies such as reversal blurring and the creation of myth to dramatize gender identity and to highlight the varied nature of motherhood as enslaved women experienced it The final chapter evaluates the influence of the neo slave narrative on American literature in general and on popular perceptions and misperceptions of African American women Repression and Recovery Cary Nelson, 1989 A poststructuralist literary history Nelson s premise that the history of modernist culture is one we no longer know we have forgotten and he aims to recover the political questions many forgotten modern poets looked straight in the eye Black American Women Novelists Craig Hansen Werner, 1989 A Human Necklace Moira Ferguson, 2013-12-02 From Brown Girl Brownstones 1959 to The Fisher King 2000 Paule Marshall s novels novellas and short stories include a rich cast of unforgettable men women and children who forge spiritual as well as emotional and geographical paths toward their ancestors In this the first critical study to address all of Marshall s fiction Moira Ferguson argues that Marshall s work collectively constitutes a multigenerational saga of the African diaspora across centuries and continents In creating a space for her characters interrupted lives and those of their elders and ancestors Ferguson argues Marshall trains a spotlight on slavery s wake and engages her fiction in the service of healing deep global wounds Long Past Slavery Catherine A. Stewart, 2016-02-05 From 1936 to 1939 the New Deal s Federal Writers Project collected life stories from more than 2 300 former African American slaves These narratives are now widely used as a source to understand the lived experience of those who made the transition from slavery to freedom But in this examination of the project and its legacy Catherine A Stewart shows it was the product of competing visions of the past as ex slaves memories of bondage emancipation and life as freedpeople were used to craft arguments for and against full inclusion of African Americans in society Stewart demonstrates how project administrators such as the folklorist John Lomax white and black interviewers including Zora Neale Hurston and the ex slaves themselves fought to shape understandings of black identity She reveals that some influential project employees were also members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy intent on memorializing the Old South Stewart places ex slaves at the center of debates over black citizenship to illuminate African Americans struggle to redefine their past as well as their future in the face of formidable opposition By shedding new light on a critically important episode in the history of race remembrance and the legacy of slavery in the United States Stewart compels readers to rethink a prominent archive used to construct that history

American Puritanism and the Defense of Mourning Mitchell Robert Breitwieser,1990 Mary White Rowlandwon a New England Congregationalist minister s wife was held captive by the Algonquin Indians during King Philip s War in 1676 Several years after she was ransomed and living among the British again she wrote a narrative of the captivity chronicling her experience in grief love resentment and ethnic trauma Breitwieser argues that this narrative undercuts the Puritan values Rowlandson attempted to uphold He reveals where and how Rowlandson breaks with Puritan conventions He points out that in American Puritan religious practice real experiences were seen as signs or emblems of moral abstractions American Puritanism and the Defense of Mourning will be essential reading for all who study early American literature and culture The Erotics of Talk Carla Kaplan,1996 African American women s texts she demonstrates often dramatize their distrust of their readers their lack of faith in the cultural conversation through strategies of self silencing and self talk At the same time she argues the homoerotics of women s writing has too often gone unremarked Not only does longing for an ideal listener draw women s texts into a romance with the reader but there is an erotic excess which is part of feminist critical recuperation itself

Visionary Compacts Donald E. Pease,1987 Nineteenth Century American Poetry Philip K. Jason,1989 This list of prominent poets in this volume reminds us that for most of the nineteenth century American literature was the literature of New England Poe and Lanier represent the South Whitman Crane and Melville New York Bryant Emerson Thoreau Holmes Whittier Lowell Longfellow and Dickinson were citizens of New England as were the lesser known Tuckerman and Very Dunbar is the lone midwesterner As a group they were highly conscious of a shared responsibility the building of a national literature The purpose of this book is to help the student of nineteenth century American poetry locate those secondary materials needed for course work background reading research and independent study The first section is devoted to general treatments of nineteenth century American poetry this is followed by sections on individual authors in sequence according to birth Ideal for high school and undergraduate students and a good starting point for the more specialized needs of advanced English majors graduate students and professional scholars
