Phillips, 2015-02-18 People's passion for golf manifests itself in many ways. Some enjoy the game so much they want to make it a prominent part of their retirement surroundings. This work functions as both an informative source for golfing aficionados who are looking for a place to retire and as a helpful guide for non-golfers in the family. Here details on golf communities in six southeastern states are presented: North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi. Organized by state, each chapter begins with information on state and city populations, sales income and social security taxes and a geographical description. Each state is divided into geographical areas that offer attractive retirement and golfing opportunities. For each city listed a general introduction including data from the 2000 Census is provided. Information on the golf courses, a variety of real estate options, nearby dependable health care services, convenient and varied shopping, favorable year-round climate, continuing education opportunities, nearby recreation attractions and dining and regional artistic and cultural amenities is offered. Lists of both a state's nationally ranked and overall best golf courses as determined by Golf Digest are also included at the end of each chapter. Snow Country, 1991-09 In the 87 issues of Snow Country published between 1988 and 1999 the reader can
