Spectre Of Maralinga:

Spectre of Maralinga Michael Hughes, 1985 The Immeasurable World William Atkins, 2018-07-24 Winner of the Stanford Dolman Travel Book of the Year UK William Atkins is an erudite writer with a wonderful wit and gaze and this is a new and exciting beast of a travel book Joy Williams In the classic literary tradition of Bruce Chatwin and Geoff Dyer a rich and exquisitely written account of travels in eight deserts on five continents that evokes the timeless allure of these remote and forbidding places One third of the earth's surface is classified as desert Restless unhappy in love and intrigued by the Desert Fathers who forged Christian monasticism in the Egyptian desert William Atkins decided to travel in eight of the world's driest hottest places the Empty Quarter of Oman the Gobi Desert and Taklamakan deserts of northwest China the Great Victoria Desert of Australia the man made desert of the Aral Sea in Kazakhstan the Black Rock and Sonoran Deserts of the American Southwest and Egypt's Eastern Desert Each of his travel narratives effortlessly weaves aspects of natural history historical background and present day reportage into a compelling tapestry that reveals the human appeal of these often inhuman landscapes Maralinga Alan Parkinson, 2007 In April 2000 a 108 million clean up of the former British A bomb test site in outback South Australia was being wound up It was declared a success and the Maralinga tjarutja Aboriginal people were reassured that it would be safe to move back onto their lands It was claimed to be a world first the biggest and most successful clean up ever But leaked documents show that behind the scenes the project had been increasingly troubled Some key insiders including the government's advisers say that the job was never finished properly In the process of the clean up Australia put large amounts of plutonium into several unlined unguarded holes in the ground the toxic waste blowing across the land in dusty clouds the site is a devastating legacy to nuclear testing not to mention the Aboriginal people who have been told it is safe to live there Alan Parkinson was the official adviser to the project but after he voiced his concerns about the dangers of the shortcuts that were being taken he was removed from the project and told to be quiet Refusing to be silenced Alan has been fighting for an inquiry for six years this is his story The British Nuclear Weapons Programme, 1952-2002 Douglas Holdstock, Frank Barnaby, 2003 In this book scientists doctors peace researchers and others assess the military value political impact health effects and legality of the British Nuclear Weapons programme
