interview The caterpillar does all the work but the butterfly gets all the publicity This quote from American comedian George Carlin provides the central motif for the book which is a must read for all students of public relations and communications who want to become successful PR advisors and consultants It is a technical book packed with theory practice examples and exercises but set out in an accessible way using frontline experience and examples to drive the narrative Drawing on a rich variety of sources it gives the inside track on the applied business of public relations in the agency and workplace setting explaining what consultancy really means and showing how to go about the process of attracting and winning new business These steps are followed by chapters that unlock the world of media relations from how to plan and manage media campaigns structure and pitch effective news releases broaden coverage through features and show clients how to become effective spokespeople The book offers a perspective on the science of applied social psychology that drives modern public relations shares techniques to launch new products and sets out a structure for winning proposals and rules on writing style Along the way it provides pen portraits of the great pioneers of PR engineers of consent such as Edward L Bernays and Ivy Ledbetter Lee and offers a glimpse into the lifestyle of today's caterpillar in a busy agency Much of the content of The Caterpillar Factory has been tested with hundreds of trainees and it is designed to be a valuable addition to the knowledge and skills base of all PR students

Girls of the Factory M. Laetitia Cairoli, 2011-06-01 In Morocco today the idea of female laborers is generally frowned upon Yet despite this many women are beginning to find work in factories Laetitia Cairoli spent a year in the ancient city of Fes Girls of the Factory tells the story of what life is like for working women Forced to find a factory job herself so that she could speak more intimately with working women she was able to learn firsthand why they work what working means to them and how important earning a wage is to their sense of self Cairoli conveys a general sense of the working life of women in Morocco by describing daily life inside a Moroccan sewing factory She also reveals the additional work they face inside their homes More than an ethnography this volume is also for those who want to better understand what life is like for a new generation of young women just entering the workforce

The Word Factory Oscar Whinge, 2016-05-18 Unquestionably The Word Factory is the perfect guide to better English Grammar and effortless writing According to one newspaper report universities in England had begun to penalise students who employed incorrect grammar in their essays In South Africa the analysis of seventy four thousand short stories found that written work of children was littered with SMS language American slang exclamation marks and references to celebrities All through my formative years I had to contend with five different languages English Afrikaans and two other dialects which for the most part accounted for my inability to translate thought into words effortlessly and inhibited my willingness to participate in lively social discussions especially in the course of my high school years However possessed of determination I had vowed to overcome that infirmity My need to succeed at all costs precipitated the memorisation of the entire Pocket Oxford Dictionary an accomplishment that spanned ten long years following which a further ten years were spent in acquainting myself with most English phrases idiomatic expressions and collecting the data and fully researching it I decided to name the compilation The Word Factory The fruits of my efforts but more specifically the extensive employment of The Word Factory not only marked my rise onto the podiums as master of ceremonies and public speaker but had also enabled me to write approximately twenty five articles to the Cape Argus Cape Towns pre eminent newspaper within the space of two years with 100 per cent publication rate
