 help with weight issues and for overall improved health many people turn to diets In fact government statistics show that while about 65 percent of Americans are overweight 38 percent are actually doing something about it And according to a recent survey by the National Health Institute about a third of overweight Americans who are trying to lose weight are doing so by eating less carbohydrates carbs largely because of the increased popularity of fad diets like Atkins Diet and the South Beach Diet Although there have certainly been other low carb or low sugar diet plans before and more will most assuredly come out in the years ahead let s take a look at the basics behind many of the major plans And let s take a look at how they fit into the real world today Because while it might be great to lower the body s sugar content and be healthier wouldn t it be great to learn how to do so while being part of this fast paced world In the world of instant messaging quick Internet interaction and the already multi faceted day to day hectic schedules dietary food budgeting planning preparing and shopping are issues that can become major sources of stress and reasons for dieting failure Dual income families on the go and other super busy wage earners and dieters often already suffer from more than their share of everyday stressors like fears of being laid off their jobs being relocated or terminated juggling more than one job dependents both elderly and minors and trying to fund and juggle continuing education into their lives budgets and daily routines People want and need simpler solutions And they need simpler dieting plans Forget spending mega bucks on gourmet hard to find items Forget spending hours just to prepare meals And forget counting measuring and weighing ingredients Either a low carb plan fit into real world lives or it doesn t First we ll take a look at some basic terms and definitions to help understand the science behind low carb plans Let s see how many of the major players plans measure up Note that the contents here are not presented from
