Suicide Across the Life Span Judith M. Stillion, Eugene E. McDowell, 1996 First published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Multiple AIDS-related Loss David Nord, 1997 The aim of this book is to legitimize the pain experienced by many of the survivors of AIDS by normalizing the abnormal experience of survivors It argues that multiple AIDS related loss means not only losing one loved one to AIDS but also has Shadows in the Sun Betty Davies, 2015-12-22 Shadows in the Sun covers the immediate short and long term responses and subsequent generational effects of sibling bereavement and discusses sibling responses in the context of the variables which influence them The final chapter synthesizes all that has gone before into a comprehensive model of sibling bereavement Practical guidelines are offered for those who seek to help grieving siblings children and families Ethnic Variations in Dying, Death and Grief Donald P. Irish, Kathleen F. Lundquist, Vivian J. Nelsen, 2014-01-02 This volume is directed towards professionals who work in the fields concerning death and dying These professionals must perceive the needs of people with cultural patterns which are different from the standard and dominant patterns in the United States and Canada Accordingly the book includes illustrative episodes and in depth presentations of selected ethnic patterns Each of the ethnic chapters is written by an author who shares the cultural traditions the chapter describes Other chapters examine multicultural issues and provide the means for personal reflection on death and dying There are also two bibliographic sections one general and one geared towards children The text is divided into three sections Cross Cultural and Personal perspectives Dying Death and Grief Among Selected Ethnic Communities and Reflections and Conclusions The book is aimed at those in the fields of clinical psychology grief therapy sociology nursing social and health care work Perspectives On Loss John H. Harvey, 2014-01-14 Losses are integral to the human experience but they sometimes unfold in subtle ways Loss is not just about death but can encompass a number of situations such as those gradual losses experienced by the elderly loss of vision mental capacity or hope Intended to stimulate ideas and research in the new area of psychological aspects of loss this sourcebook collects the writing of a set of distinguished scholars representing psychology and related fields The author presents a case for a broadly construed field of loss both personal and interpersonal that would complement other fields such as death and dying traumatology and stress and coping No other volume is as comprehensive in its treatment of this intriguing subject The book begins with an introduction to the concept of loss and discusses the definition of the term and the salience of the topic in the general public in the 1990s Contributors were chosen to represent some of the most interesting current work on different types of loss and adaptation in the whole of the social and behavioral sciences Contents cover such diverse subjects as loss in intimate relationships disability chronic illness genocide sports unemployment and homelessness The book concludes with a commentary section on loss theory and research Health Care for an Aging Society David Haber, 2014-01-02 First published in 1989 In an aging society however the challenge broadens to include health care and social support at home and in the community The major premise of this book is that cost conscious community care and self care will become increasingly important as the era of cost containment intensifies

Parenting After the Death of a Child Jennifer L. Buckle, Stephen J. Fleming, 2011-01-19 The death of a child has a tremendous and overwhelming impact on parents and siblings completely altering the psychological landscape of the family In the aftermath of such a tragedy parents face the challenge of not only dealing with their own grief but also that of their surviving children How can someone attempt to cease parenting a deceased child while maintaining this role with his her other children Is it possible for a mother or father to effectively deal with feelings of grief and loss while simultaneously helping their surviving children Parenting After the Death of a Child A Practitioner s Guide addresses this complex and daunting dilemma Following on the heels of a qualitative research study that involved interviewing bereaved parents both fathers and mothers Buckle and Fleming have put together several different stories of loss and recovery to create an invaluable resource for clinicians students and grieving parents The authors present the experience of losing a child and its subsequent impact on a family in a novel and effective way demonstrating the strength and importance of their book for the counseling field

Bereavement Care for Families David W. Kissane, Francine Parnes, 2014-01-03 Grief is a family affair When a loved one dies the distress reverberates throughout the immediate and extended family Family therapy has long attended to issues of loss and grief yet not as the dominant therapeutic paradigm Bereavement Care for Families changes that it is a practical resource for the clinician one that draws upon the evidence supporting family approaches to bereavement care and also provides clinically oriented strategic guidance on how to incorporate family approaches into other models Subsequent chapters set forth a detailed research based therapeutic model that clinicians can use to facilitate therapy engage the ambivalent deal with uncertainty manage family conflict develop realistic goals and more Any clinician sensitive to the roles family members play in bereavement care need look no further than this groundbreaking text

International Handbook on Giftedness Larisa Shavinina, 2009-08-12 If you publish you are trying to create something that is original that stands out from the crowd Above all you want to create something you are proud of Richard Branson 2002 p 57 After the publication of my bestselling International Handbook on Innovation publishers from around the world began to invite me to work on new books with them When Springer invited me to prepare the International Handbook on Giftedness I was on a maternity leave with my 3 months old and my 5 year old was just starting school I however had wanted to prepare such a Handbook for a long time and was waiting for just the right moment to dive right into such an endeavor The time had come and I agreed to prepare a Handbook that would expose readers to new views great discoveries and significant advancements of scientific knowledge exactly as Richard Feynman advised see his opening quote at the beginning of the introductory chapter I have always been convinced of the paramount significance of the topic of giftedness and gifted education to the world as a whole There is no doubt that gifted individuals were are and will be extremely important to society One way to understand the history of human civilization is via inventions and discoveries of the gifted All human cultural development builds on the amazing technological scientific educational and moral achievements of the human mind Today people increasingly realize that gifted and talented individuals are even more important than in the past

LEGAL FRAME WORK OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITY IN INDIA Prof. (Dr.) Kunal Kanti Hazra, Dr. Biswajit Bala, 2025-03-28

Suicidal Behavior in Muslim Majority Countries S. M. Yasir Arafat, Mohsen Rezaeian, Murad M. Khan, 2024-06-07 The book is about suicidal behavior in Muslim majority countries Islam is the second largest religion in the world There are also sizable Muslim populations in non Islamic countries Suicide is strongly prohibited in Islam and based on this tenet suicide and self harm remain criminalized acts in many Islamic countries When compared to the global estimates for suicide rates and to non Islamic countries Muslim majority countries have lower rates indicating that Islamic faith and practice may be protective against suicidal behaviors However several factors such as criminal status stigma toward suicide extreme dearth of research low quality data and under reporting make it difficult to draw any firm conclusions Hence this book aims to do a deeper study of suicidal behaviors in Muslim majority countries covering epidemiology risk factors and the challenges of suicide prevention in Muslim majority countries
