Summer House A Tradition Of Leisure:

The Summer House Amy Willard Cross,1992      A World of Their Own Making John R. Gillis,1997 Discusses ritual events we regard as family traditions and how they must be open to perpetual revision so we can satisfy our human needs and changing circumstances      The Routledge Handbook of Second Home Tourism and Mobilities C. Michael Hall,Dieter Müller,2018-04-17 Second homes have become an increasingly important component of both tourism and housing studies They can directly and indirectly contribute a significant number of domestic and international visitors to destinations and may be part of longer term retirement lifestyle and amenity migration that can have significant economic and social effects on communities and destination development This volume offers an overview of different disciplinary and methodological approaches to second homes while simultaneously providing a broad geographical reach Divided into four parts exploring governance development community and mobile second homes the book provides a contemporary account of the major issues in an area of growing international interest This timely handbook covers a wide range of dimensions from planning to the role of second homes in development and the management of their impact The international and cross disciplinary nature of the contributions will be of interest to numerous academic fields in the social sciences as well as urban and regional planners      A Boy's Cottage Diary, 1904 Fred Dickinson,1996-06-30 Fred Dickinson s diary opens a window on youth and the world of Ontario lakeland cottages at the beginning of the 20th century The stories we hand down the diaries we preserve become the fabric of our social history Young Fred Dickinson s 1904 account of tenting and cottaging is a spirited first hand sketch of a long neglected part of our heritage Larry Turner places the diary within social historic and geographic contexts giving it wide appeal to history buffs of all ages Julie Johnston award winning author      Historical Geography in Czechia: Themes and Concepts Eva Semotanová,Pavel Chromý,Zdeněk Kušera,2023-11-06 Although the content of historical geography may be viewed from different perspectives there is no doubt that historical geography has interdisciplinary character The publication represents an outcome of cooperation among geographers and historians within the Historical Geography Research Centre that continues more than forty years old tradition of common researches in Czechia Beside discussing the disciplinary origins the most vital research topics of present Czech historical geography are reflected in its contents transformations of landscapes historical towns and of regions      Multiple Dwelling and Tourism Norman McIntyre,Daniel Williams,Kevin McHugh,2006-01-01 The movement of people goods capital and information is a central aspect of living in the inter connected globalised late modern world Although this broader view of mobility is recognized this book focuses mainly on migration or the movement of people and examines multiple dwelling as a societal response to the major influences of increased mobility and amenity tourism visiting or residing in high quality landscapes such as mountains beaches and forests for leisure experiences It considers the modern day meaning of multiple dwelling how it affects personal identity and the meaning of home and its impacts on host communities and landscapes This book is of significant interest to those working in the areas of tourism leisure geography outdoor recreation sociology and anthropology

Cottage Country in Transition Greg Halseth, 1998-09-30 Using the Rideau Lakes region of eastern Ontario and the Cultus Lake area of southwestern British Columbia as case studies Greg Halseth examines the ways in which economic political and social power affect community change He focuses on specific issues such as residential change land use planning property taxation and social organization Moving beyond empirical research Halseth sets the changes occurring in these communities within a broader intellectual context of community power and commodification of the rural idyll He pays particular attention to how general processes and pressures work themselves out in particular places Written in an accessible style Cottage Country in Transition will be of great interest to rural geographers planners sociologists and community researchers as well as to rural residents and cottage owners

A Timeless Place Julia Harrison, 2013-09-01 As Julia Harrison's first summer living in Ontario approached she became aware of the culture of the cottage While friends and family talked of nothing but languid afternoons on the dock and bartered for as many lakeside days as possible Harrison marveled at the less attractive components of cottage life the clogged highways en route and the unrelenting investment of money and labour that the idyllic escapes demanded Curious about the rich and passionate meaning these places seemed to hold Harrison studied cottagers in the Haliburton region over the course of seven years Thoughtfully and engagingly written A Timeless Place considers the cottage family as a place where memories are treasured national identity is celebrated spiritual balance is restored and even a few dark secrets are kept

Thinking Through Tourism Julie Scott, Tom Selwyn, 2021-01-14 The study of tourism has made key contributions to the study of anthropology This volume defines the current state of the anthropology of tourism examining political economic ideological and symbolic themes An extraordinarily rich collection of case studies illustrate topics as diverse as hospitality sex and tourism enchantment colonial and neo colonial consumption and the relation between tourism and gender and ethnic boundaries as well as questions of global economic and cultural systems modernism and nationalism The book also covers practical and policy issues relating to urban rural and coastal planning and development Thinking through Tourism assesses the enormous potential contribution that analysis of tourism can offer to mainstream anthropological thinking The volume opens up new avenues for enquiry and is an essential resource for students and scholars of anthropology geography tourism sociology and related disciplines

From Burleigh to Boschink Christie Bentham, Katharine Hooke, 2000-07-15 From Burleigh to Boschink A Community Called Stony Lake covers over a hundred years of human history encompassing the Aboriginal Peoples their presence and influence early settlement and cottaging activity up to the present time Family stories local lore boats and steamers recreational opportunities personalities and environmental concerns are all presented through the writings the voices and the memories of those who were there and in some cases still are Richly supported by rare photographs and other visuals of Stony Lake this publication will bring delight to many

draws from recent work in cultural history landscape studies in geography and art history and environmental history to explore what happens when external agendas confront local realities a story central to the Canadian experience Explorers fishers artists and park planners all were forced to respond to the unique contours of this inland sea their encounters defined a regional identity even as they constructed a popular image for the Bay in the national imagination Jacket The View from Vermont Blake A. Harrison, 2006 With its small native population proximity to major metropolitan areas and bucolic rural beauty Vermont was fated to be a tourist mecca forever associated in the popular imagination with maple syrup fall colors and ski bunnies Tourism for good and ill has always been the decisive factor in the conception of rural Vermont What is surprising however is the degree to which we have accepted this notion of rural Vermont as a somehow timeless entity Blake Harrison's rich and rewarding study instead presents the construction of Vermont's landscape as a complex and ever changing dynamic informed by progressive modernist and reformist thought competing views of economic expansion rural and urban prejudice and social exclusion and more recently by land use planning and environmentalism This broad based study includes the early history of Vermont tourism the concomitant abandonment of farms with the rise of the summer home the creation of an unspoiled Vermont from billboards at least the impact of Vermont's ski industry on tradition bound tourism and later efforts to legislate growth and protect an increasingly static ideal of a rural Vermont While grounded within a specific Vermont view Harrison has much to contribute to broader studies of rural places tourism and landscapes in American culture His analysis of how physical landscapes affect and are affected by our imagined landscape and the insight afforded by his juxtaposition of leisure and labor will deeply inform our understanding of rural tourist landscapes for years to come This is a truly interdisciplinary work that will satisfy and challenge historians and geographers alike Real Estate Market Dynamics in the Kickapoo River Valley, Wisconsin 1979-1998 Pat James Connolly, 2001 Ontario Geography, 1990 Leisure, Plantations, and the Making of a New South Julia Brock, Daniel Vivian, 2015-10-01 Leisure Plantations and the Making of New South investigates the social architectural and environmental history of sporting plantations in the South Carolina lowcountry and the Red Hills region of southeast Georgia and northern Florida Although plantations figure prominently in histories of the post emancipation South historians have paid little attention to the redevelopment of plantations for non agricultural use By examining the two largest concentrations of sporting plantations on the south Atlantic coast this collection explores questions about historical memory of slavery race relations material culture and the environment during the first half of the twentieth century Old-House Journal, 2004-07 Old House Journal is the original magazine devoted to restoring and preserving old houses For more than 35 years our mission has been to help old house owners repair restore update and decorate buildings of every age and architectural style Each issue explores hands on restoration techniques practical architectural guidelines historical overviews and homeowner stories all in a trusted authoritative voice The Table Book, of Daily Recreation and Information: William Hone, 1891 Resorts and

Ports Peter Borsay, John K. Walton, 2011-10-14 Histories of seaports and coastal resorts have usually been kept in separate compartments This book brings them together and looks at how resort development affected historic ports during the rise and development of the seaside holiday in Europe from the 18th century to the 20th and what the attributes of ports fishing harbour crafts the whiff of the exotic fishermen s homes and families contributed to the attractions of resorts Case studies drawn from across Europe from Wales and the Netherlands to Norway Latvia and Spain bring original perspectives to bear on these histories and relationships and consider their influence on seaside heritage and regeneration at a time when coastal settlements are increasingly using their past to secure their future The book will interest academics in tourism studies history geography and cultural studies as well as provide essential information and analysis for policy makers in coastal regeneration

What's Happening to Home? Maggie Jackson, 2002 In our chaotic high tech age the lines between work and home public and private are becoming increasingly blurred In this changing time Jackson explores the ever changing role of home in our lives and sets out to update our idea of home What s Happening to Home goes beyond debates about square footage and working moms to shed light on the larger questions surrounding the idea of home How can we find refuge without shortchanging the work lives so many of us value How can we preserve times and spaces for intimacy and reflection without returning to rigid ideals of the past Jackson offers an inspiring and illuminating look at the future of home the centerpiece of our lives Author website

The Top Books of the Year Summer House A Tradition Of Leisure The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Summer House A Tradition Of Leisure : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Summer House A Tradition Of Leisure : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
