Indians George W. Arthur,1975-01-01 This study uses archaeological ethnohistorical and ecological data in an effort to understand the nature of early historic communal bison hunting among the aboriginal groups of the northern Plains Published in English The Horses of the Sahara Eugène Daumas,2014-01-13 The Arabs created one of the world s finest breeds of saddle horses the Arabian and they have long possessed an immense store of knowledge regarding the care training and breeding of this splendid horse In the nineteenth century General Melchior Joseph Eugene Daumas had access to their knowledge even though as he pointed out it requires a great deal of patience and tact for a Christian to obtain from the Mohammedans even the most insignificant of details General Daumas was because of his unique relationship with the Arabs probably the first European to produce a comprehensive study of Arabian horses And to add even greater value to The Horses of the Sahara he was able to secure for the ninth edition here translated extended commentaries on all aspects of Arabian horsemanship by the Emir Abd el Kadar one of the most important nineteenth century Arab leaders and certainly one of the foremost authorities on the subject The Horses of the Sahara will be of interest not only to equestrians but also to historians and other scholars interested in the customs of the North African desert tribes and in the complex backgrounds of European North African relations General Daumas took part in the conquest of Algeria by France so distinguishing himself that he was named Director of the Bureau of Algerian Affairs in the French Ministry of War During the campaigns and the occupation that followed he studied and attempted to understand the native peoples with an objectivity and sympathy unusual among the colonialists of the period His book provides fascinating sidelights on many aspects of Arab life including customs superstitions religion and family life Sheila M Ohlendorf was uniquely suited to translate The Horses of the Sahara An excellent rider herself thoroughly experienced with the animals and the techniques being discussed she also spoke fluent French having received her B A degree in languages from Texas Western University now the University of Texas at El Paso As curator of the Hall of the Horsemen the large collection at the University of Texas at Austin she had access to a wide variety of supplementary authorities which enriched both her translation and the notes that accompany the book Horses and Horsemanship M.
