Sun Sand And Space:

Sun, Sand and Space Wendy Smith, 2003 Mik and Mak the Space Twins are bored in outer space Even cloning themselves isn't as fun as they'd hoped But then their Earth friends invite them to go camping Can Mik and Mak get used to tents and cowpats This tale features speech and thought bubbles and sound effects The Penguins Ate My Postcards Arlene Pullen, 2008-04-02 The Penguins Ate My Postcards tells the story of one woman's connections with people and places as she traveled around the world It consists of essays grouped by theme of varying lengths and moods They can be read in any order and independently of one another Sections One provides anecdotes about people the author met in the USSR Australia Cambodia and Europe Most of their stories are light and entertaining but they all identify some characteristics of human beings in specific situations all of us have faced Section Two through Section Five describe some of the places the author has traveled She combines her feelings as she stood atop mountains or glaciers and watched the sun set behind them with the reality of the beauty she was capturing with her camera Some of the essays are memoirs from the time when Communism ruled a vast part of the world and traveling was different in Iron Curtain countries from what it is now She'll take you on her taxi ride through Checkpoint Charlie in Berlin and on her train ride from Leningrad through the Baltic countries and Poland into East Berlin Because the author was a teacher she'll share with you some of the literary and historic sites she visited combining some facts with her impressions and some incidents that occurred in those places You'll laugh along with her as she compares the people she met with beloved literary characters you'll remember from your high school and college English classes You'll become pensive when she relates stories about genocide and civil strife in some of the Asian countries she has visited You'll share some of her professional experiences as she visited schools in South Africa Cambodia England China and Vietnam with her focus being on the conditions in which teachers and students interacted for learning You'll remember the children Some of the essays contain anecdotes about encounters with penguins in Antarctica polar bears in the tundra kangaroos in Australia and camels in Egypt The settings of her tales are diverse and the enjoyment of being close to wild animals in their native habitat is strong You'll walk alongside waterfalls down mountain trails within the remains of ancient civilizations and in buildings constructed for some unique reasons Section Six deals with the benefits of traveling as the author illustrates some of the rules governing safe travel especially for a woman traveling alone She writes about the danger she encountered when the airplane tires blew while the plane was above the Himalayan Mountains and when she walked alone in some remote places She provides humorous stories dealing with language differences in European countries One essay extols the value of having a competent travel agent and tour guide again with anecdotes that identify the relationship she had with agents who prepared some of her trips Finally the book answers the most frequently asked question of experienced travelers What's your favorite place The Penguins Ate My Postcards is an enjoyable collection of informal personal essays that will keep you interested in the people and places being featured as they give you a strong impression of the location in which the events occurred These essays are not the result of someones imagination the incidents actually happened and the author was an eye witness to them As you read youll recognize that the author has separated life into serious situations and light humorous moods but she treats all the participants with the respect and sensitivity necessary to tell their stories Perhaps after you read The Penguins Ate My Postcards youll want to explore the world and find your own adventures Happy reading     The Homestead ,1923     Marine Science & Technology in China: A Roadmap to 2050 Jianhai Xiang,2010-08-04 As one of the eighteen field specific reports comprising the comprehensive scope of the strategic general report of the Chinese Academy of Sciences this sub report addresses long range planning for developing science and technology in the field of marine science They each craft a roadmap for their sphere of development to 2050 In their entirety the general and sub group reports analyze the evolution and laws governing the development of science and technology describe the decisive impact of science and technology on the modernization process predict that the world is on the eve of an impending S T revolution and call for China to be fully prepared for this new round of S T advancement Based on the detailed study of the demands on S T innovation in China s modernization the reports draw a framework for eight basic and strategic systems of socio economic development with the support of science and technology work out China s S T roadmaps for the relevant eight basic and strategic systems in line with China s reality further detail S T initiatives of strategic importance to China s modernization and provide S T decision makers with comprehensive consultations for the development of S T innovation consistent with China s reality Supported by illustrations and tables of data the reports provide researchers government officials and entrepreneurs with guidance concerning research directions the planning process and investment Founded in 1949 the Chinese Academy of Sciences is the nation s highest academic institution in natural sciences Its major responsibilities are to conduct research in basic and technological sciences to undertake nationwide integrated surveys on natural resources and ecological environment to provide the country with scientific data and consultations for government s decision making to undertake government assigned projects with regard to key S T problems in the process of socio economic development to initiate personnel training and to promote China s high tech enterprises through its active engagement in these areas     Encyclopedia of Leisure and Outdoor Recreation John Jenkins,John Pigram,2004-08-02 This is a key reference guide for the exploration of leisure and outdoor recreation It reflects the multidisciplinary nature of these fields and contextualizes the leading research and knowledge on key concepts theories and practices Edited by leading authorities in the field this volume includes a comprehensive index and up to date suggestions for further reading It is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent study and a solid starting point for wider subject exploration     ,     Try Us ,1975     To Defend and Deter John Clayton Lonquest,1996     Florida Schools ,1966     Fodor's New Mexico Fodor's,2011 Describes New Mexico and recommends hotels and restaurants and offers advice on tours festivals nightlife outdoor activities and entertainment     The city trip
