

Sweet Mysteries of Life

In a church such as ours we encourage all spiritual journeys. This is as it should be for human spiritual searches are timeless and their landscapes areas varied as the earth's. As sentient creatures who seek meaning and purpose, we are faced with enduring mysteries that stretch back to the beginning of our species. We have wondered about the Universe, about what God or gods control it, about our mortality, and even what it means to be human. This week Charlie Mattioli shares thoughts and stories on these mysteries that are drawn from the varied sources our church respects. They are given with the desire to encourage you to look widely and deeply with the openness and courage these mysteries deserve to find your faith.

reaffirm the hope that is ours through Jesus Christ and challenge readers to a deeper and more intense faith relationship with the almighty. The collection provides a complete set of sermons for each Sunday and major celebration throughout the Christian year based on the Second Readings from Cycle B of the Revised Common Lectionary. Outstanding preachers from across the denominational spectrum draw on texts from the New Testament epistles to explore how the practical and moral concerns of the early church offer lessons for modern Christian living. Each biblically grounded message confronts real issues with Christ honoring solutions that bring challenge, comfort and conviction to those who look at life with the eyes of faith. This is an essential resource that is useful for Fresh homiletical approaches to the lectionary texts. Preaching illustrations. A clearer understanding of scripture passages. Adult study and discussion groups. Personal devotions and Bible study on each Sunday's readings. Rarely is there such a wonderful blend of the pastoral heart and the scholarly intellect. Frederick Harm's sermons draw on a wide spectrum of literature from Luther to Paul Harvey from Seneca to Yogi Berra from Epicurus to John Bunyan. Harm's illustrations far from being contrived or trite naturally illumine the truths of the scriptures. Permeating each sermon is the deep desire to share Christ and his love with the hearer. Pastors will find ample ideas and inspiration in these sermons as they seek to build their own message for the people of God. Stephen A. Gewecke, Counselor, Circuit 5, New Jersey District, Lutheran Church Missouri Synod.
