G. Jung C. G. Jung,2015-06-05 In May 1956 in his eighty second year Jung first discussed with Gerhard Adler the question of the publication of his letters Over many years Jung had often used the medium of letters to communicate his ideas to others and to clarify the interpretation of his work quite apart from answering people who approached him with genuine problems of their own and simply corresponding with friends and colleagues Many of his letters thus contain new creative ideas and provide a running commentary on his work From some 1 600 letters written by Jung between the years 1906 1961 the editors have selected over 1 000 Volume 1 published in 1973 contains those letters written between 1906 and 1950 THE COLLECTED WORKS OF C. G. JUNG: Symbols of Transformation \(Volume 5\) C.G. Jung,2014-12-05 In 1911 Jung published a book of which he says it laid down a programme to be followed for the next few decades of my life It was vastly erudite and covered innumerable fields of study psychiatry psychoanalysis ethnology and comparative religion amongst others In due course it became a standard work and was translated into French Dutch and Italian as well as English in which language it was given the well known but somewhat misleading title of The Psychology of the Unconscious In the Foreword to the present revised edition which first appeared in 1956 Jung says it was the explosion of all those psychic contents which could find no room no breathing space in the constricting atmosphere of Freudian psychology It was an attempt only partially successful to create a wider setting for medical psychology and to bring the whole of the psychic phenomena within its purview For this edition appearing ten years after the first bibliographical citations and entries have been revised in the light of subsequent publications in the Collected Works and in the standard edition of Freud's works some translations have been substituted in quotations and other essential corrections have been made but there have been no changes of substance in the text
