Sympathy and Solidarity Sandra Lee Bartky,2002-01-21 In a rare full length volume renowned feminist thinker Sandra Lee Bartky brings together eight essays in one volume Sympathy and Solidarity A philosophical work accessible to an educated general audience the essays reflect the intersection of the author s eye work and sometimes her politics Two motifs connect the works first all deal with feminist topics and themes second most deal with the reality of oppression especially in the disguised and subtle ways it can be manifested The Dark Years? Jacob L. Goodson,2020-08-04 In 1997 and 1998 the American secular philosopher Richard Rorty published a set of predictions about the twenty first century ranging from the years 2014 95 He predicted for instance the election of a strong man in the 2016 presidential race and the proliferation of gun violence starting in 2014 He labels the years from 2014 44 the darkest years of American history politics and society From 2045 95 Rorty thinks his own vision for social hope will be implemented within American society a vision that includes charity in the Pauline sense solidarity and sympathy Rorty considers himself a leftist liberal and a philosopher of hope So why would a philosopher of hope predict such darkness and despair In The Dark Years Philosophy Politics and the Problem of Predictions philosopher and political theorist Jacob L Goodson explains the fullness of Rorty s predictions the problem of making predictions within the social sciences and the reasons why even Rorty s vision for life after the dark years fails us on the standards of hope Goodson argues that we ought to challenge the monopoly that American politics has as our object of hope Goodson makes the case for a melancholic yet redemptive hope Masculinity in the Work of Elizabeth Gaskell Meghan Lowe,2020-11-09 This book is the first full length study to focus on the representation of masculinity in Elizabeth Gaskell s novels In examining Gaskell s understanding of masculine identity as a social construct and considering how her writing engages with Victorian ideologies of gender this book demonstrates that Gaskell defies an essentialist approach to gender and instead explores masculinity over time genre region and class making it clear that masculinity is not monolithic but relational culturally constructed and dependent on many contexts It analyses Gaskell s depiction of what it means to be a man and a gentleman exploring Mary Barton North and South Ruth Cousin Phillis Sylvia s Lovers and Wives and Daughters as well as contemporary Victorian works and key contexts such as sympathy historic change and industrialism The target audiences are academics as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students and research specialists and it will most appeal to Victorian Literature Gender Studies and Masculinity Studies disciplines Women's Emancipation and Civil Society Organisations Christina Schwabenland,Chris Lange,Jenny Onyx,Sachiko Nakagawa,2016-10-05 Available Open Access under CC BY NC ND licence Women are at the heart of civil society organisations Through them they have achieved many successes challenged oppressive practices at a local and global level and have developed outstanding entrepreneurial activities Yet Civil Service Organisation CSO research tends to ignore considerations of gender and the rich history of activist feminist organisations is rarely examined This collection examines the nexus between the emancipation of women and their role s in these organisations Featuring contrasting studies from a wide range of contributors from different parts of the world it covers emerging issues such as the role of social media in organising the significance of religion in many cultural contexts activism in Eastern Europe and the impact of environmental degradation on women s lives Asking whether involvement in CSOs offers a potential source of emancipation for women or maintains the status quo this anthology will also have an impact on policy and practice in relation to equal opportunities
