Synagogues In Germany A Virtual Reconstruction:

Synagogues in Germany Technische Universität Darmstadt, Kunst- und Ausstellungshalle der Bundesrepublik Deutschland, 2004 These elaborate CAD reconstructions developed by Darmstadt Technical University provide a representative survey of the architecture of synagogues in Germany before their destruction What is more they convey visual impressions of the diversity the splendour and the significance of the synagogue in the history of German urban architecture from the early nineteenth century until 1938 In doing so they also demonstrate the potential of such media to contribute to a new culture of remembrance Reactions to the first exhibition in 2000 in Bonn Germany were resounding with international praise for the quality of the simulations and their value as an instrument in the service of historical truth This publication presents the results for the first time in print to coincide with the launching of an exhibition in Tel Aviv which will travel to New York Los Angeles and further international venues

Synagogues in Germany, 2000 Companion website to an installation exhibited in Bonn in 2000 that featured digital recreations of 14 German synagogues that were torn down before 1938 or destroyed during the Kristallnacht pogrom Provides a historical summary background information about the installation and a bibliography of sources A student project of Darmstadt Technical University Synagogues in Germany - A Virtual Reconstruction Ursula Zeller, Marc Grellert, Agnieszka Lulinska, 2004

Jewish Migration and the Archive James Jordan, Lisa Leff, Joachim Schlör, 2017-10-02 Migration is and has always been a disruptive experience Freedom from oppression and hope for a better life are counter balanced by feelings of loss loss of family members of a home of personal belongings Memories of the migration process itself often fade quickly away in view of the new challenges that await immigrants in their new homelands This volume asks and shows how migration memories have been kept stored forgotten and indeed retrieved in many different archives in official institutions in heritage centres as well as in personal and family collections Based on a variety of examples and conceptual approaches from artistic approaches to the family archive via smell and memory as archives to a cultural history of the suitcase this volume offers a new and original way to write Jewish history and the history of Jewish migration in the context of personal and public memory The documents reflect the transitory character of the migration experience and they tell stories of longing and belonging This book was originally published as a special issue of Jewish Culture and History

Management of Digital Technologies in the Innovative Economy Elena G. Popkova, 2025-05-31 This book is devoted to rethinking the modern theory and practice of digital technology management in the innovative economy through the lens of sustainable development The book systematises the vectors of the sustainable development of the innovative economy The progressive practice of digital technologies management in business in support of the sustainable development of the innovative economy is considered The practice of state management of digital technologies in support of the sustainable development of the innovative economy is studied The international experience of digital technology management in support of the sustainable development of the innovative economy is discussed

Recommendations for the improvement of digital technology management for the sustainable development of the innovative economy are proposed Building a Public Judaism Saskia Coenen Snyder, 2013-01-08 Coenen Snyder considers what the architecture and construction of nineteenth century European synagogues reveal about the social progress of modern European Jews The process of claiming a Jewish space was a marker of acculturation but not full acceptance she argues The new edifices even if spectacular revealed the limits of Jewish integration Computer-aided Reconstruction in Historic Preservation Alfredo Maul, 2003 CAA2014: 21st Century Archaeology F. Giligny, F. Djindjian, L. Costa, 2015-03-31 This volume brings together a selection of papers proposed for the Proceedings of the 42nd Computer Applications and Quantitative Methods in Archaeology conference CAA hosted at Paris 1 Pantheon Sorbonne University from 22nd to 25th April 2014 New Heritage Yehuda Kalay, Thomas Kvan, Janice Affleck, 2007-11-14 The use of new media in the service of cultural heritage is a fast growing field known variously as virtual or digital heritage New Heritage under this denomination broadens the definition of the field to address the complexity of cultural heritage such as the related social political and economic issues This book is a collection of 20 key essays of authors from 11 countries representing a wide range of professions including architecture philosophy history cultural heritage management new media museology and computer science which examine the application of new media to cultural heritage from a different points of view Issues surrounding heritage interpretation to the public and the attempts to capture the essence of both tangible buildings monuments and intangible customs rituals cultural heritage are investigated in a series of innovative case studies The Destruction of Memory Robert Bevan, 2007-04-20 Crumbled shells of mosques in Iraq the bombing of British cathedrals in World War II the fall of the World Trade Center towers on September 11 when architectural totems such as these are destroyed by conflicts and the ravages of war more than mere buildings are at stake The Destruction of Memory reveals the extent to which a nation weds itself to its landscape Robert Bevan argues that such destruction not only shatters a nation s culture and morale but is also a deliberate act of eradicating a culture s memory and ultimately its existence Bevan combs through world history to highlight a range of wars and conflicts in which the destruction of architecture was pivotal From Cortez s razing of Aztec cities to the carpet bombings of Dresden and Tokyo in World War II to the war in the former Yugoslavia The Destruction of Memory exposes the cultural war that rages behind architectural annihilation revealing that in this subliminal assault lies the complex aim of exterminating a people He provocatively argues for the fatally intertwined experience of genocide and cultural genocide ultimately proposing the elevation of cultural genocide to a crime punishable by international law In an age in which Frank Gehry I M Pei and Frank Lloyd Wright are revered and yet museums and temples of priceless value are destroyed in wars around the world Bevan challenges the notion of collateral damage arguing that it is in fact a deliberate act of war
