Take The Cannoli Stories From The New World:

Take the Cannoli Sarah Vowell, 2013-12-17 A wickedly funny collection of personal essays from popular NPR personality Sarah Vowell Hailed by Newsweek as a cranky stylist with talent to burn Vowell has an irresistible voice caustic and sympathetic insightful and double edged that has attracted a loyal following for her magazine writing and radio monologues on This American Life While tackling subjects such as identity politics religion art and history these autobiographical tales are written with a biting humor placing Vowell solidly in the tradition of Mark Twain and Dorothy Parker Vowell searches the streets of Hoboken for traces of the town's favorite son Frank Sinatra She goes under cover of heavy makeup in an investigation of goth culture blasts cannonballs into a hillside on a father daughter outing and maps her family's haunted history on a road trip down the Trail of Tears Take the Cannoli is an eclectic tour of the New World a collection of alternately hilarious and heartbreaking essays and autobiographical yarns

Assassination Vacation Sarah Vowell, 2005-04-04 New York Times bestselling author of The Wordy Shipmates and contributor to NPR's This American Life Sarah Vowell embarks on a road trip to sites of political violence from Washington DC to Alaska to better understand our nation's ever evolving political system and history Sarah Vowell exposes the glorious conundrums of American history and culture with wit probity and an irreverent sense of humor With Assassination Vacation she takes us on a road trip like no other a journey to the pit stops of American political murder and through the myriad ways they have been used for fun and profit for political and cultural advantage From Buffalo to Alaska Washington to the Dry Tortugas Vowell visits locations immortalized and influenced by the spilling of politically important blood reporting as she goes with her trademark blend of wisecracking humor remarkable honesty and thought provoking criticism We learn about the jinx that was Robert Todd Lincoln present at the assassinations of Presidents Lincoln Garfield and McKinley and witness the politicking that went into the making of the Lincoln Memorial The resulting narrative is much more than an entertaining and informative travelogue it is the disturbing and fascinating story of how American death has been manipulated by popular culture including literature architecture sculpture and the author's favorite historical tourism Though the themes of loss and violence are explored and we make detours to see how the Republican Party became the Republican Party there are all kinds of lighter diversions along the way into the lives of the three presidents and their assassins including mummies show tunes mean spirited totem poles and a nineteenth century biblical sex cult

Hope and Wish Image in Music Technology David P. Rando, 2016-11-15 This book proposes that new music technologies attract unconscious desires for socialism and collectivity enabling millions of people living under capitalism to dream of repressed social alternatives Grounded in the philosophical writings of Ernst Bloch and Walter Benjamin the book examines file sharing technologies streaming services and media players as well as their historical antecedents such as the player piano cassette tape radio and compact disc alongside interpretations of fiction memoir and albums Through the concept of wish images the unconscious hopes and desires for social alternatives that gather around new technologies the book identifies the repressed pre and post capitalist urges that attend our music technologies While these desires typically remain unconscious and tend to pass away not only unmet but also unrecognized Hope and Wish Image in Music Technology attempts to bring wishes for social alternatives to the surface at an auspicious moment of technological transition

Weak Nationalisms Douglas Dowland, 2019-07-01 The question What is America has taken on new urgency Weak Nationalisms explores the emotional dynamics behind that question by examining how a range of authors have attempted to answer it through nonfiction since the Second World War revealing the complex and dynamic ways in which affects shape the literary construction of everyday experience in the United States Douglas Dowland studies these attempts to define the nation in an eclectic selection of texts from writers such as Simone de Beauvoir John Steinbeck Charles Kuralt Jane Smiley and Sarah Vowell Each of these texts makes use of synecdoche and Weak Nationalisms shows how this rhetorical technique is variously driven by affects including curiosity discontent hopefulness and incredulity In exploring the function of synecdoche in the creative construction of the United States Dowland draws attention to the evocative politics and literary richness of nationalism and connects critical literary practices to broader discussions involving affect theory and cultural representation

The Cherokee Nation and the Trail of Tears Theda Perdue, Michael D. Green, 2007-07-05 Today a fraction of the Cherokee people remains in their traditional homeland in the southern Appalachians Most Cherokees were forcibly relocated to eastern Oklahoma in the early nineteenth century In 1830 the U S government shifted its policy from one of trying to assimilate American Indians to one of

relocating them and proceeded to drive seventeen thousand Cherokee people west of the Mississippi The Cherokee Nation and the Trail of Tears recounts this moment in American history and considers its impact on the Cherokee on U S Indian relations and on contemporary society Guggenheim Fellowship winning historian Theda Perdue and coauthor Michael D Green explain the various and sometimes competing interests that resulted in the Cherokee s expulsion follow the exiles along the Trail of Tears and chronicle their difficult years in the West after removal

Teaching Literature and Writing in Prisons Sheila Smith McKoy, Patrick Elliot Alexander, 2023-10-13 As the work of Malcolm X Angela Y Davis and others has made clear education in prison has enabled people to rethink systems of oppression Courses in reading and writing help incarcerated students feel a sense of community examine the past and present and imagine a better future Yet incarcerated students often lack the resources materials information and opportunity to pursue their coursework and training is not always available for those who teach incarcerated students This volume will aid both new and experienced instructors by providing strategies for developing courses for creating supportive learning environments and for presenting and publishing incarcerated students scholarly and creative work It also suggests approaches to self care designed to help instructors sustain their work Essays incorporate the perspectives of both incarcerated and nonincarcerated teachers and students centering critical prison studies scholarship and abolitionist perspectives This volume contains discussion of Mumia Abu Jamal s Live from Death Row Marita Bonner s The Purple Flower Suzanne Collins s The Hunger Games Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and William Shakespeare s The Taming of the Shrew and Othello

Hollywood Blockbusters David Sutton, Peter Wogan, 2020-05-15 Why do Jaws Field of Dreams The Big Lebowski and The Godfather remain strikingly popular in this age of fragmented audiences and ever faster spin cycles Hollywood Blockbusters The Anthropology of Popular Movies argues that these films continue to captivate audiences because they play upon underlying tensions and problems in American culture much like the myths that anthropologists study in non Western contexts In making this argument the authors employ and extend anthropological theories about ritual kinship gift giving power egalitarianism literacy metalinguistics stereotypes and the mysteries of the Other The results original insights into modern film classics American culture and anthropological theory will appeal to students of Film Media Anthropology Sociology and Cultural Studies
