Taking a Case to the European Court of Human Rights Philip Leach, 2001 Examined by the Court Research Handbook on Governance of the Internet Ian Brown, 2013-01-01 The Internet is now a key part of everyday life across the developed world and growing rapidly across developing countries This Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the latest research on Internet governance written by the leading scholars in the field With an international focus it features contributions from lawyers economists and political scientists across North America Europe and Australia They adopt a broad multidisciplinary perspective taking in law economics political science international relations and communications studies Thought provoking chapters cover topics such as ICANN the Internet Governance Forum grassroots activism innovation human rights privacy in social networks and network neutrality Being a forward looking guide for the next decade this Research Handbook will strongly appeal to scholars and graduate students in the social sciences studying and researching Internet governance political scientists economists lawyers and computer scientists working on governance issues as well as regulators and policymakers responsible for Internet governance in national governments and intergovernmental organisations

Blackstone's Guide to the Human Rights Act 1998 John Wadham, JOHN; MOUNTFIELD KC WADHAM (HELEN; DESAI, RAJ; HANNE.), Wadham et al, 2024 Blackstone's Guide to the Human Rights Act 1998 provides clear concise coverage of the operation and application of the Human Rights Act 1998 The Guide considers the case law of the European Court of Human Rights and the impact of Convention rights in landmark domestic judgments Yearbook of the European

Convention on Human Rights European Commission of Human Rights, European Court of Human Rights, Council of Europe. Directorate of Human Rights, 2007 Environmental Technologies, Intellectual Property and Climate Change Abbe E. L. Brown, 2013-01-01 Many disciplines are relevant to combating climate change This challenging book draws together legal regulatory geographic industrial and professional perspectives and explores the role of technologies in addressing climate change through mitigation adaptation and information gathering It explores some key issues Is intellectual property part of the solution an obstacle to change or peripheral Are there more important questions Do they receive the attention they deserve And from whom This innovative book will play an important role in stimulating holistic discussion and action on an issue of key importance to society Environmental Technologies Intellectual Property and Climate Change will appeal strongly to scholars researching IP and climate change as well as to a range of professionals including venture capitalists practising lawyers working in IP environmental and corporate finance law activists within both climate change and human rights and policymakers Advocacy and Human Rights Philip Plowden, Kevin Kerrigan, 2002 The Human Rights Act 1998 was fully implemented in October 2000 and since then it has become clear how fundamentally the Act will challenge all aspects of our legal system As Sir Stephen Sedley said in his 2000 Eldon lecture the courts are going to be dependent as never before on the advocates who come before them for knowledgeable and balanced argument about the Convention This book provides advocates with a guide to the preparation and presentation of Convention based arguments before domestic courts and tribunals It analyses recent domestic and Strasbourg case law and sets out points for advocates covering the different issues which may need to be addressed in each area The book shows advocates how to provide courts with structured and effective guidance on the application of the Human Rights Act ensuring that they are able to identify and to promote human rights arguments in advancing their clients case Blackstone's Statutes on Employment Law Richard Kidner,2023-08-03
