Taking Of Pelham 123:

The Taking of Pelham 123 (video), 1974 Media and Crime in the U.S. Yvonne Jewkes, Travis Linnemann, 2017-07-27
Offering new and innovative ways of thinking about the relationship between media and crime Media and Crime in the U S critically examines the influence of media coverage of crimes on US culture and identity The Taking of Pelham 123
John Godey, 1973 The Cinema of Urban Crisis Lawrence Webb, 2025-10-01 In the 1970s cities across the United States and Western Europe faced a deep social and political crisis that challenged established principles of planning economics and urban theory At the same time film industries experienced a parallel process of transition the effects of which rippled through the aesthetic and narrative form of the decade s cinema The Cinema of Urban Crisis traces a new path through the cinematic legacy of the 1970s by drawing together these intertwined histories of urban and cultural change Bringing issues of space and place to the fore the book unpacks the geographical and spatial dynamics of film movements from the New Hollywood to the New German Cinema showing how the crisis of the seventies and the emerging postindustrial economy brought film and the city together in new configurations Chapters cover a range of cities on both sides of the Atlantic from New York Philadelphia and San Francisco to London Paris and Berlin Integrating analysis of film industries and production practices with detailed considerations of individual texts the book offers strikingly original close analyses of a wide range of films from New Hollywood The Conversation The King of Marvin Gardens Rocky to European art cinema Alice in the Cities The Passenger Tout va Bien and popular international genres such as the political thriller and the crime film Focusing on the aesthetic and representational strategies of these films the book argues that the decade s cinema engaged with and helped to shape the passage from the urban crisis of the late sixties to the neoliberal urban renaissance of the early eighties Splicing ideas from film studies with urban geography and architectural history the book offers a fresh perspective on a rich period of film history and opens up new directions for critical engagement between film and urban studies Tony Scott Larry Taylor, 2019-01-17 Tony Scott got his start as a film director when he joined his brother at the lucrative commercial directing company Ridley Scott Associates After directing Top Gun his second film which changed not only the trajectory of his own life but of the entire action movie industry Scott s career would be a roller coaster of blockbuster hits personal films and confounding failures With extensive research and original interviews with actors cinematographers and writers this book documents Tony Scott s larger than life persona from his early days to his untimely death which left a hole in genre filmmaking yet to be filled The Hollywood Reporter, 2009 It's Only a Movie Mark Kermode, 2010-02-04 In It s Only a Movie the incomparable Mark Kermode takes us into the weird world of a life lived in widescreen Join him as he gets lost in Russia on the trail of a low budget horror flick gasp as he s shot at in Hollywood while interviewing Bavarian director Werner Herzog cheer as he gets thrown out of the Cannes film festival for heckling in very bad French and cringe as he s handbagged by Helen Mirren at London s glitzy BAFTA Awards Written with sardonic wit and wry good humour this journeys iconic stations and memorable depictions in the arts Bestsellers (Routledge Revivals) John Sutherland, 2010-10-04 First published in 1981 this book offers a study of British and American popular fiction in the 1970s a decade in which the quest for the superseller came to dominate the lives of publishers on both sides of the Atlantic Illustrated by examples of the lurid incidents that catapult so many books into the bestseller charts this comprehensive study covers the work of Robbins Hailey and Maclean the bodice rippers the disaster craze horror war stories and media tie ins such as The Godfather Jaws and Star Wars Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e g amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir s presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon Media and Crime Yvonne Jewkes, 2015-02-16 This book critically examines the complex interactions between media and crime Written with an engaging and authoritative voice it guides you through all the key issues ranging from news reporting of crime media constructions of children and women moral panics and media and the police to reality crime shows surveillance and social control This third edition Explores innovations in technology and forms of reporting including citizen journalism Examines the impact of new media including mobile Internet and digital technologies and social networking sites Features chapters dedicated to the issues around cybercrime and crime film along with new content on terrorism and the media Shows you how to research media and crime Includes discussion questions further reading and a glossary Now features a companion website complete with links to journal articles relevant websites and blogs This is essential reading for your studies in criminology media studies cultural studies and sociology The Key Approaches to Criminology series celebrates the removal of traditional barriers between disciplines and specifically reflects criminology s interdisciplinary nature and focus It brings together some of the leading scholars working at the intersections of criminology and related subjects Each book in the series helps readers to make intellectual connections between criminology and other discourses and to understand the importance of studying crime and criminal justice within the context of broader debates The series is intended to have appeal across the entire range of undergraduate and postgraduate studies and beyond comprising books which offer introductions to the fields as well as advancing ideas and knowledge in their subject areas

Night and Day John Connolly, 2024-10-22 New York Times bestselling author John Connolly one of the best thriller writers we have Harlan Coben 1 New York Times bestselling author returns with a shivery collection of supernatural tales Filled with eerie surprises and dark delights Night and Day takes us from the dusty shelves of an uncanny library filled with fictional characters to a bunker deep beneath the earth where scientists seek revenge on old Nazis from an English marsh haunted by a mother and her son to a country house where a grieving widower finds comfort from a most unlikely source Concluding with the author's account of how an obscure horror film brought him closer to his lost father and how nostalgia can help to keep us sane this is a collection that will move entertain and keep you reading late into the night

Decline and Reimagination in Cinematic New York Cortland Rankin, 2022-09-02 Decline and Reimagination in Cinematic New York examines the cinematic representation of New York from the mid 1960s through the mid 1980s placing the dominant discourse of urban decline in dialogue with marginal perspectives that reimagine the city along alternative paths as a resilient adaptive and endlessly inspiring place Drawing on mainstream independent documentary and experimental films the book offers a multifaceted account of the power of film to imagine the city's decline and reimagine its potential The book analyzes how filmmakers mobilized derelict space and various articulations of nature as settings and signifiers that decenter traditional understandings of the city to represent New York alternately as a desolate wasteland a hostile wilderness a refuge and playground for outcasts a home to resilient and resourceful communities a studio for artistic experimentation an arcadia conducive to alternative social arrangements and a complex ecosystem This book will be of interest to scholars and students of film studies media studies urban cinema urban studies and eco cinema
