Globalisation Trends in the Media Marta Žilková, 2021-04-16 The book of studies named Globalisation Trends in the Media contains an evaluation of the media culture in Slovakia. It deals with problems caused by globalisation and by the specific circumstances of media production. Whilst the post socialist states are in many respects in a similar situation, they each have their own specific attributes too. As this book features not only Slovak but also Czech and Polish authors, the English reader will be able to gain an idea of the state of media production and especially of the media culture in Central Europe. The nature of media culture in Central Europe when compared to that of countries situated further east differs mainly in its inclination towards western Europe and unfortunately towards America too. The book contains theoretical and glozing articles dealing with radio and television production as well as the Internet. Overall, the book aims to introduce the reader to the state of the Slovak media culture to its audience and also to its problems and successes since the year 1989. The book will probably attract the attention of experts in media production, academics of media culture and young people interested in radio and television production who would like to learn something about the culture of a small Central European country. They might have come across a similar phenomena in England. The book will help them find out how European culture influences Slovakia.

Horror Films of the 1990s John Kenneth Muir, 2011-10-06 This filmography covers more than 300 horror films released from 1990 through 1999. The horror genre's trends and clichés are connected to social and cultural phenomena such as Y2K fears and the Los Angeles riots. Popular films were about serial killers, aliens, conspiracies and sinister interlopers, new monsters who shambled their way into havoc. Each of the films is discussed at length with detailed credits and critical commentary. There are six appendices: 1990s clichés and conventions, 1990s hall of fame, memorable ad lines, movie references in Scream, 1990s horrors vs The X-Files, and the decade's ten best. Fully indexed. 224 photographs.

The Tales Jessica Bozek, 2023 Stitching together a post apocalyptic history from the scraps of fairy tales, war memorials, hunting songs and disparate scholarship, Jessica Bozek's The Tales traces the violence that humans inflict upon one another. As the central narrative of the Lone Survivor becomes revealed through the mouths of various perspectives, Bozek investigates the language that victims and perpetrators alike use to make sense of and attempt to forget the aftermath of violence. From ordinary objects, family photographs, sweaters that unravel, old batteries and lightbulbs to the remnants of destroyed art and architecture, an annihilated nation is brought into reality, and the Lone Survivor's story is simultaneously documented and invalidated becoming a memorial that will disintegrate over time gray and frayed as most of the dead did not have a chance to
