Wonders and Curiosities of the Railway; Or, Stories of the Locomotive in Every Land William

Sloane Kennedy,1884 Village Folk-tales of Ceylon ... ,1914 Here All Dwell Free Gertrud Mueller Nelson,2006-06-01

Every human being lives a fairy tale an unconscious myth that works on us shapes us and points to our truth Often the story is filled with danger and foreboding The good news is for those who examine it closely the story also carries with it balm and healing Here All Dwell Free is an in depth exploration of two classic fairy tales that have particular significance for women The Handless Maiden will resonate in a special way with women who feel powerless in the contemporary world In a similar way Briar Rose is about falling asleep and waking of abandonment and allowing oneself to be discovered by love While the stories recounted here may be ancient they speak to us today in unmistakable symbolic language inviting us to enter them live them and be made whole again Best Short Stories Martha Foley,Edward Joseph O'Brien,1919 Stories of Vigilant Courage Adam Hildebrand,2008-08 If you find yourself at the bedside of a child with multiple handicaps and complex medical needs you need to read this book Whether you are a nurse doctor parent or family member health care professional or a personal ally of an individual who is disabled you will benefit from reading the stories in the book and the analysis of issues by the editor It sometimes happens that some people whether a professional or not will be tempted to think of such children as better off dead an extremely dangerous assumption Illness and suffering do not diminish the value of a person s life and no one has the right to decide whether or not a person should live or die This book gives firsthand accounts of the experiences of handicapped children and their families in health care settings Their experiences vary from doctor to doctor nurse to nurse and hospital to hospital The key difference is that some people held a strong belief that every person s life has intrinsic value and that their lives were sacred Yet others measured the value of a life according to external factors such as level of disability impairments and level of suffering whether presumed or real You can guess which people gave better care and which children lived longer and better accordingly In spite of the difficult challenges that handicapped children and their families face as described in these stories this book is a book of hope You will be inspired by the courageous tenacity of parents who literally stood at the bedside of their children often for months and protected and affirmed the well being of their child This is a book about people who made a difference a difference between life and death Tales and Poems of Tonga Ernest Edgar Vyvyan Collocott,1928 Magazine Angling Stories ,1906 The Complete Short Stories of Elizabeth Gaskell Elizabeth Gaskell,2023-11-30 In The Complete Short Stories of Elizabeth Gaskell readers are invited to explore a rich tapestry of narratives that reflect the intricacies of Victorian society Gaskell s literary style marries realism with a poignant emotional depth showcasing her acute observations of class disparities gender roles and the lives of those on society s margins Within this collection readers will encounter a variety of themes from domestic life to social critique all articulated through her distinctive voice that seamlessly weaves moral insight with empathy inviting reflection on the human condition Elizabeth Gaskell a contemporary of Charles Dickens was profoundly influenced by her own experiences in the industrial North of England Born to a Unitarian family and later marrying a minister her environment shaped her commitment to social issues and her desire to illuminate the struggles of working class individuals particularly women Gaskell's background as a mother and a member of a progressive community undoubtedly informed her compelling portrayals of women's experiences and societal challenges establishing her as a pioneering female voice in literature This collection is highly recommended for readers interested in delving into the nuances of 19th century literature as well as those seeking engaging narratives that advocate for social justice and gender equality Gaskell's stories not only offer a window into the past but also resonate with contemporary issues making them timeless and essential reading

New Stories from the Southwest D. Seth Horton, 2008

The beauty and barrenness of the southwestern landscape naturally lends itself to the art of storytellers It is a land of heat and dryness a land of spirits a land that is misunderstood by those living along the coasts New Stories from the Southwest presents nineteen short stories that appeared in North American periodicals between January and December 2006 Though many of these stories vary by aesthetics tone voice and almost any other craft category one might wish to use they are nevertheless bound together by at least one factor which is that the landscape of the region plays a key role in their narratives They each evoke and explore what it means to exist in this unique corner of the country Selected by editor D Seth Horton the former fiction editor for the Sonora Review from a wide cross section of journals and magazines and with a foreword by noted writer Ray Gonzalez New Stories from the Southwest presents a generous sampling of the best of contemporary fiction situated in this often overlooked area of the country Swallow Press is particularly pleased to publish this wide ranging collection of stories from both new and established writers Contributors to New Stories from the Southwest are Alan Cheuse Matt Clark Lorien Crow Kathleen De Azvedo Alan Elyshevitz Marcela Fuentes Dennis Fulgoni Ray Gonzalez Anna Green Donald Lucio Hurd Toni Jensen Charles Kemnitz Elmo Lum Tom McWhorter S G Miller Peter Rock Alicita Rodriguez John Tait Patrick Tobin Valery Varble

A Collection of Four Unusual Stories Carlos A. Sanchez, 2024-10-31

The four stories in this collection really are unusual All four vary but they do have some things in common If you like action suspense intrigue and aren't afraid to have your beliefs about the physical universe challenged you'll enjoy them all In Deadly Descent A Mountain Biking Mystery Jeff and Mark have been friends since grade school and share a passion for adventure mostly through mountain biking They decide to pursue a mysterious uncharted trail they heard about from a fellow biker which takes them from Tampa to rural Virginia Finding the elusive trail is tough enough but what they run into on that remote mountain trail is shocking and life altering Hold onto your handlebars you're in for a rough ride David and Jean is about Brent a dentist who generously donates some used but good quality dental equipment to a local free clinic He's helped in the installation process by George a local handyman George's young son David has a very unusual dental problem which he convinces Brent to take a look at in his family home Brent examines David and is totally flummoxed by what he sees in the little boy's mouth as well as what he experiences the moment he sets foot in that house It's nothing he's ever seen read about or confronted in his years of study or practice This condition poses an existential threat to David so ignoring it is not an option Leap and Tree is about a retired couple Prescott and Marjorie who live in a small Indiana town Their home and lives are totally upended when Leap and Tree decide to break in and stay there undetected When Marjorie stumbles upon them one sleepless night the ensuing shock leaves her shaken and disabled Prescott is now faced with caring for his stricken wife and making sure that the two who caused this are held accountable The Talmo Nine is a story about a minor league baseball team the Snappers whose old team bus overheats on the way to a game in Rome Georgia They re forced to stop in the small town of Talmo for repairs and in the hopes of making their game on time While that s going on the players find an abandoned baseball field next to an old railway depot that s now a museum They decide to practice on the old field and are surprised when the ragtag local team shows up unexpectedly and challenges them to a game play ball Lillian Morris, and Other Stories Henryk Sienkiewicz ,2015-02-09 Example in this ebook I came to America in September 1849 said the captain and found myself in New Orleans which was half French at that time From New Orleans I went up the Mississippi to a great sugar plantation where I found work and good wages But since I was young in those days and full of daring sitting in one spot and writing annoyed me so I left that place soon and began life in the forest My comrades and I passed some time among the lakes of Louisiana in the midst of crocodiles snakes and mosquitoes We supported ourselves with hunting and fishing and from time to time floated down great numbers of logs to New Orleans where purchasers paid for them not badly in money Our expeditions reached distant places We went as far as Bloody Arkansas which sparsely inhabited even at this day was well nigh a pure wilderness then Such a life full of labors and dangers bloody encounters with pirates on the Mississippi and with Indians who at that time were numerous in Louisiana Arkansas and Tennessee increased my health and strength which by nature were uncommon and gave me also such knowledge of the plains that I could read in that great book not worse than any red warrior After the discovery of gold in California large parties of emigrants left Boston New York Philadelphia and other eastern cities almost daily and one of these thanks to my reputation chose me for leader or as we say captain I accepted the office willingly since wonders were told of California in those days and I had cherished thoughts of going to the Far West though without concealing from myself the perils of the journey At present the distance between New York and San Francisco is passed by rail in a week and the real desert begins only west of Omaha in those days it was something quite different Cities and towns which between New York and Chicago are as numerous as poppy seeds now did not exist then and Chicago itself which later on grew up like a mushroom after rain was merely a poor obscure fishing village not found on maps It was necessary to travel with wagons men and mules through a country quite wild and inhabited by terrible tribes of Indians Crows Blackfeet Pawnees Sioux and Arickarees which it was well nigh impossible to avoid in large numbers since those tribes movable as sand had no fixed dwellings but being hunters circled over great spaces of prairie while following buffaloes and antelopes Not few were the toils then that threatened us but he who goes to the Far West must be ready to suffer hardship and expose his life frequently I feared most of all the responsibility which I had accepted This matter had been settled however and there was nothing to do but make preparations for the road These lasted more than two months since we had to bring wagons even from Pittsburgh to buy mules horses arms and collect large supplies of provisions Toward the end of winter however all things were ready I wished to start in such season as to pass the great prairies lying between the Mississippi and the Rocky Mountains in spring for I knew that in summer because of heat in those open places multitudes of men died of various diseases I decided for this reason to lead the train not over the southern route by St Louis but through Iowa Nebraska and Northern Colorado That road was more dangerous with reference to Indians but beyond doubt it was the healthier The plan roused opposition at first among people of the train I declared that if they would not obey they might choose another captain They yielded after a brief consultation and we moved at the first breath of spring To be continue in this ebook The Best Short Stories of ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story ,1919 The Best American

Jan's Rainbow; Stories of Hope; How Those We Have Loved and Lost Stay in Touch Lindsay Collier, 2002-06-05 It was just one day after Lindsay Collier's wife of forty years Jan lost her battle with ovarian cancer that a beautiful rainbow surrounded their home in upstate New York where family members were gathered to celebrate her life Since that time there have been many amazing experiences that have provided some very compelling proof that Jan is not very far away And Lindsay a former engineer engineers always need proof is not one who is prone to fantasy which makes these occurrences all the more believable He also tells about some other rather amazing experiences that he and his family have had following losses of other loved ones These stories alone will make a believer out of you But there is much more Lindsay also found that as he related these stories to friends and associates he would often find that they would frequently offer their own stories about how lost loved ones had made contact with them The stories were amazing and revolved around everything from dragonflies to birds to lights and clocks changing to things appearing out of nowhere There are more than twenty five of these included in the book all of which will leave you feeling very good and a little less lonely for those you have lost Lindsay made a commitment to learn as much as he could from his loss and to help others to find ways to survive their loss He has spoken to a number of bereavement groups about how to survive loss and shares these insights in Jan's Rainbow His suggestions and ideas on dealing with loss come from true experience Before taking early retirement Lindsay was the Creative Thinking Guru for Kodak so his ideas tend to be different As he says Losing a loved one is a life changing experience and it requires some very creative thinking to get through it There are some wonderful and very different tips for dealing with loss included that will ease the journey through the bereavement process Included are ways to re frame your thinking how to use positive humor in your healing and the use of metaphors to expand your thinking or finding innovative ways to survive and much much more This book is a must for anyone who has lost a loved one or knows of someone who has It is the ultimate feel good book for helping people to deal with losing a loved one You'll cry you'll laugh and you'll be lifted to a new level of hope A substantial portion of the proceeds of this book will be donated to Gilda's Club of Rochester New York an organization built in memory of Gilda Radner which provides help to women with cancer Wendell Berry: Port William Novels & Stories: The Civil War to World War II (LOA #302)

Wendell Berry, 2018-01-30 Library of America inaugurates its edition of the complete fiction of one of America's most beloved living writers. For more than fifty years in eight novels and forty-two short stories Wendell Berry b. 1934 has created an indelible portrait of rural America through the lens of Port William, Kentucky, one of the most fully imagined places in American literature. Taken together, these novels and stories form a masterwork of American prose: straightforward, spare, and lyrical. Now, for the first time, in an edition prepared in consultation with the author, Library of America is presenting the complete story of Port William in the order of narrative chronology. This first volume, which spans from the Civil War to World War II, gathers the novels Nathan Coulter (1960, revised 1985), A Place on Earth (1967, revised 1983), A World Lost (1996), and Andy Catlett's Early Travels (2006), along with twenty-three short stories, among them such favorites as Watch With Me, Thicker than Liquor, and A Desirable Woman. It also features a newly researched chronology of Berry's life and career, a map, and a Port William Membership family tree and helpful notes. LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation's literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America's best and most significant writing. The Library of America series includes more than 300 volumes to date, authoritative editions that average 1,000 pages in length, feature cloth covers, sewn bindings, and ribbon markers, and are printed on premium acid-free paper that will last for centuries.

The Life Manager and Other Stories Mirela Roznoveanu, 2004 In Mirela Roznoveanu's new book of fiction, human love is everywhere but strangely hard to find. Love animates a world where the tangled web of sexuality, commitment, language, place, and history enthralls us with its tantalizing detours, its cruel pretenders, and its unexpected pleasures. These tumultuous pages introduce us to people we can instantly recognize and never forget. From adventures that vividly signal a lifetime's meaning, each returns with something new, something utterly different from that which was sought. Here, in her first major work in English, we find the pulsing, streaming vision of time, place, history, and character that distinguishes Roznoveanu's work in her native Romanian. Roznoveanu restores a visionary spirit lost to English for two or more generations. These stories come to us in the circuitous wake of the great early modernists, offering prodigious healing power for the grave psychic wounds that have afflicted the human condition since the crucial turning point of 1945. The Life Manager and Other Stories scintillates with cascades of luminous images and narrative reversals that seize our attention and don't let go. This is a book to return to again and again for its endlessly intriguing glimpses of the elusive peace and joy our souls thirst for.
