Boxing and Performance Sarah Crews, P. Solomon Lennox, 2020-11-29 Boxing and Performance is the first substantial piece of work to place the lived experience of female and male boxers in dialogue with one another Crews and Lennox critically reflect on their ethnographic experiences of boxing and their reading of the cultural representations of the sport They conceive of the project as an extended sparring session This book offers a unique perspective on boxing in as performance and boxing in as culture It explores how the connections between boxing and performance address ideas about bodies relationships intimacy and combat It challenges and renegotiates oft repeated narratives used to make meaning about boxing This volume examines questions of visibility voice and agency and will appeal to scholars and students in the fields of performance and media and sport and social studies

Urban Inequalities Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2021-01-05 This collection brings together leading thinkers on human beings in urban spaces and inequalities therein The contributors eschew conceptual confusion between equality of opportunity of access of the right to compete for whatever goal one chooses to pursue and levelling The discussions develop in the belief that old and emerging forms of inequality in urban settings need to be understood in depth as does the machinery that as masterfully elucidated by Hannah Arendt operates behind oppression to sustain power and inequality Anthropologists and fellow ethnographically committed social scientists examine socio economic cultural and political forms of urban inequality in different settings helping to address comparatively these dynamics

The Shadows of Boxing Geoffrey Beattie, 2002 Books in Print Supplement, 2002 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2004

The Shadows of Boxing Geoffrey Beattie, 2003-06-01 Prince Naseem is the one of most charismatic boxers the sport has ever seen From his early days at Brendan Ingle s gym in Wincobank Sheffield he fought his way to his first world title in 1995 and is now a household name The Shadows of Boxing visits Prince Naseem s roots chronicles the contrasting fortunes of the hard men of Ingle s gym and looks at how the Hamed family have coped with the incredible pressures of fame It also features the first major interview with Naz since his defeat at the hands of Marco Antonio Barrera

Born to Be King Ian Stafford, 1997 A legend in the making the inside story of Prince Naseem Hamed WBO featherweight champion Naseem Hamed is pound for pound perhaps the best fighter in the world and is putting excitement back into the sport of boxing At the age of 22 he is already a multimillionaire and the World Boxing Organization s featherweight champion A supremely talented athlete with skills reminiscent of a young Ali Hamed is an extravagant showman inside the ring and a quiet practicing Muslim at home As did Ali he boasts confidently of his future claiming I m going to beat all of them I m going to be a legend Naz as he is known to friends and fans alike is already one of the most popular figures in the Arab world the last time he went to Yemen his birthplace there were 20 000 people at the airport to greet him Author Ian Steafford met Hamed in the late 1980s at a gym and has followed his career from his debut as an undercard fighter to his successful challenge for the world title In Born to Be King he chronicles the story behind Hamed s success and profiles the man himself a gifted fighter driven by unshakable beliefs Steafford also takes a look at Brendan Ingle the unorthodox Irishman who has guided Hamed s career since the fighter was just seven years old Prince of the Ring Gavin Evans,1997-04 In this in depth portrait which draws on conversations with Naz his family friends and his trainer Gavin Evans explores the development of the boxer from his childhood to his world title victory and beyond The Prince and the Prophet Nick Pitt,1998 Tells the story of British boxer Naseem Hamed and the trainer who discovered him Brendan Ingle The Paddy and the Prince Nick Pitt,1998 Wicked! Gavin Evans,1999 Ever since he was eight years old Naseem The Prince Hamed has been telling everyone who would listen that he was destined to be a multiple world champion Today sixteen years later he has made believers out of all England This is God s own boxer a man so outrageously talented that even the crustiest old cynics are admitting they have never seen his like before The leopardskin shorts the acrobatics the non stop verbiage and most significantly of all the unique combination of speed defensive skill strength and power have made him one of Britain s premier sports personalities and now have launched him in the United States also In this engrossing and in depth portrait author Gavin Evans explores the development of this young phenom from his childhood to his world title victories and beyond From his roots in the Yemeni community in Britain his struggles at school his salvation at Brendan Ingles boxing gym and his current life beyond the cameras and ring lights this is a fascinating story of courage self confidence and single minded determination Sugar Ray Sugar Ray Robinson,Dave Anderson,1994-03-22 Sugar Ray Robinson 1921 1989 was hailed as the finest boxer to ever enter a ring Muhammad Ali once called him the king my master my idol and indeed he was the idol of everyone who had anything to do with boxing But for African Americans he was more than a great boxer In an era when blacks were supposed to be humble and grateful for favors received he was a man whose every move in and out of the ring showed what black pride and power meant Sugar Ray grew up during the Depression in the ghettos of Detroit and New York rose through the amateur boxing ranks became Golden Gloves champion at the featherweight at the age of eighteen and become world welterweight champion in 1946 and middleweight in 1951 Robinson had it all but later lost it all and in this classic autobiography he tells it all with remarkable candor Here is Sugar Ray the dazzlingly handsome champion with a craving for fast cars and fast living the kid who was terrified of elevators the young GI who together with Joe Louis combated racial discrimination the honest fighter who refused a million dollars to throw a fight against Rocky Graziano the boxer who dreamed he would kill his opponent in the ring and did so the following night This Da Capo edition is supplemented with a new foreword and afterword by Dave Anderson about Sugar Ray s last years in Los Angeles and the legacy he left behind and with eight new pages of stunning photographs In Sunshine Or in Shadow Donald McRae,2019-05 SHORTLISTED FOR THE WILLIAM HILL SPORTS BOOK OF THE YEAR PRIZE One of the most captivating boxing writers on the planet Barry McGuigan A superb tale His inspirational story celebrates peace and reconciliation Daily Telegraph Multi award winning author Donald McRae's stunning new book is a powerful tale of hope and redemption across the sectarian divide in Northern Ireland thanks to boxing At the height of the Troubles Gerry Storey ran the Holy Family gym from the IRA's heartland territory of New Lodge in Belfast Despite coming from a family steeped in the Republican movement he insisted that it would be open to all He ensured that his boxers were given a free pass by paramilitary forces on both Republican and Loyalist sides so they could find a way out of the province's desperate situation In the immediate aftermath of the 1981 Hunger Strikes Storey would also visit the Maze prison twice a week to train the inmates from each community separately In itself this would be a heroic story but Storey went further than that he became the trainer for world champion Barry McGuigan and Olympian Hugh Russell who became one of the most famous photographers to document the Troubles Even with all his success and the support of both sides Storey still found himself subjected to three bomb attacks from those who were implacably hostile to any form of reconciliation He also worked with the Protestant boxer Davy Larmour who fought two bloody battles in the ring against Russell his Catholic friend At the same time in Derry the British and European lightweight champion Charlie Nash fought without bitterness after his brother was killed and his father was shot on Bloody Sunday the most infamous day of the conflict Now Donald McRae reveals the extraordinary tale of those troubled times After years of research and intimate interviews with the key characters in this story he shows us how the violent business of boxing became a haven of peace and hope for these remarkable and compassionate men In Sunshine or in Shadow is an inspirational story of triumph over adversity and celebrates the reconciliation that can take place when two fighters meet each other in the ring rather than outside it An outstanding and important book Don McRae's powerful storytelling shows the courage of the people of the North Andy Lee Shadow
