The Red Rebel of San Giovanni T. Giles Campbell, 2023-01-30

From a battered old trunk in the basement to the crumpled scrapbook in the bookcase to an aging envelope in an unused jewelry box they marched to the pages of this book to join the chorus to remember Telegrams letters taped interviews and voices from decades ago joined in to provide a chilling description of World War II Red was a Red Cross lady her brother lost in the confusion of war Some were courageous soldiers others became prominent heroes The author weaves common lives and historic events into an emotional explanation of what war was like for everyday Americans By Colonel Ronald Losee US Marines Ret Retired Marine Colonel Ron Losee is a graduate of the University of Illinois School of Journalism His 31 year career took him to the Far East from Korea to South Vietnam and many places in between Later as a Marine Reservist when on vacation found him as a newspaper city editor I thoroughly enjoyed reading this book This is a story about typical American families and their neighborhood friends during WWII It brings a different perspective of not only the war front but stateside life during the war By Colonel Tony Baggiano USAF Ret He served 20 years in the United States Air Force and his last Air Force assignment was the Commander of the San Antonio Data Services He was awarded numerous medals which included Vietnam Service Medal with four bronze stars The best way to teach history is to tell a story and that's what this book does This is not your normal war book as it tells a story about friends and neighbors fighting in WWII and their families at home It tells a different story about the War to End all Wars By Lieutenant Colonel James O Donnell USA Ret Infantry combat commander from Company to Battalion and to Army level and a Distinguished member of the 16th Infantry Regiment This memoir is a collection of WWII narratives about five heroic people whose wartime stories are connected From Richmond Virginia are Harriet Vaden her brother Pfc Herbert Herbie Vaden Jr 1st Lt Jimmie Monteith and 1st Lt Richard Dick Williams and from Emmons Minnesota TSgt Donald Singlestad Herbie and Donald end up in the 5th Army fighting in Italy during the invasion of Salerno and many battles afterwards Donald Singlestad later became the most decorated soldier of the 34th Infantry Division Harriet joins the Red Cross after her younger brother Herbie enlisted and she is assigned to the 454th Bomb Group in San Giovanni and Cerignola Italy When Herbie becomes MIA and severely wounded Harriet travels across war torn Italy to find him Meanwhile Richard Williams a friend of the Vadens was a bombardier with the 454th Bomb Group and becomes a prisoner of war in Romania Included are the stories of Jimmy Monteith a neighbor of the Vadens in Richmond who is assigned to the 16th Infantry of the 7th Army and earns the Medal of Honor during the Normandy invasion Family photographs V mails and other memorabilia help tell the story of these incredible heroes as they face the perils of war The wartime experiences affected each of them in many ways both good and bad As they survived each experience their reasons for serving changed in many ways and when they returned home they had to re build their lives physically and emotionally if they were to achieve happy lives again Their stories mostly in their own words are long overdue The City Is More Than

Human Frederick L. Brown, 2016-10-03 Winner of the 2017 Virginia Marie Folkins Award Association of King County Historical Organizations AKCHO Winner of the 2017 Hal K Rothman Book Prize Western History Association Seattle would not exist without animals Animals have played a vital role in shaping the city from its founding amid existing indigenous towns in the mid nineteenth century to the livestock friendly town of the late nineteenth century to the pet friendly livestock averse modern city When newcomers first arrived in the 1850s they hastened to assemble the familiar cohort of cattle horses pigs chickens and other animals that defined European agriculture This in turn contributed to the dispossession of the Native residents of the area However just as various animals were used to create a Euro American city the elimination of these same animals from Seattle was key to the creation of the new middle class neighborhoods of the twentieth century As dogs and cats came to symbolize home and family Seattleites relationship with livestock became distant and exploitative demonstrating the deep social contradictions that characterize the modern American metropolis Throughout Seattle's history people have sorted animals into categories and into places as a way of asserting power over animals other people and property In The City Is More Than Human Frederick Brown explores the dynamic troubled relationship humans have with animals In so doing he challenges us to acknowledge the role of animals of all sorts in the making and remaking of cities
