Indigenous Screen Cultures in Canada Sigurjon Baldur Hafsteinsson, Marian Bredin, 2010-09-01 Indigenous media challenges the power of the state, erodes communication monopolies and illuminates government threats to Indigenous cultural, social, economic and political sovereignty. Its effectiveness in these areas, however, is hampered by government control of broadcast frequencies, licensing and legal limitations over content and ownership. Indigenous Screen Cultures in Canada explores key questions surrounding the power and suppression of Indigenous narrative and representation in contemporary Indigenous media. Focussing primarily on the Aboriginal Peoples Television Network, the authors also examine Indigenous language broadcasting in radio, television and film. Aboriginal journalism practices, audience creation within and beyond Indigenous communities, the roles of program scheduling and content acquisition policies in the decolonization process, the roles of digital video technologies and co-production agreements in Indigenous filmmaking and the emergence of Aboriginal cyber communities.

Tall Tales of Malaysia James M. Bourke, 2022-03-17 Tall Tales of Malaysia is a collection of 18 vivid and memorable short stories about life in the Federation of Malaysia. The stories vary greatly in scope and theme. However, taken together, they capture the distinctive flavour of the people and states that make up modern Malaysia: its exotic rainforest, its diverse races, its indigenous people and their belief in ghosts, djinns and bomohs. There is a good deal of flashback to the colonial era and some mention of the legacy issues which still remain. The stories are entirely fictional and belong to the rich oral tradition of storytelling across Southeast Asia. Tall Tales of Malaysia are refreshingly different. They are gripping and a joy to read.

Spirits and Thought Forms: Tales from Prosperity Glades Jeffrey Kosh, 2014-05-20 Spirits, by their nature, are formless beings in a way they are just memes. Each spirit represents something about human nature and wishes. Spirits are wishes made into flesh or almost flesh. A thought form can range in complexity from a simple emotional impression to a fully sentient and aware being and in power from a minor servitor entity to a god. And they wear masks. In Prosperity Glades, all spirits wear a mask: the Veiled Queen, Nemesis, the Smiling Monster, the Dying Road, and the Cloaked Man. These tales are all about masks, spirits and thought forms. All take place in Prosperity Glades because there's a weak spot between our world and the spiritual one, right in the middle of Grassy Swamp And spirits and thought forms do thrive there Jeffrey Kosh invites you to return once again to that weird town in the heart of Florida s Everglades where primal forces have a hold on human desires Yet beware once there avoid making wishes They can come true and take form     The American Story: 100 True Tales from American History Jennifer Armstrong,2006-08-22 American history comes alive in these 100 true stories that define our country This magnificent treasury tells the story of America through 100 true tales Some are tales of triumph the midnight ride of Paul Revere the Wright brothers taking to the air Neil Armstrong s first steps on the moon Some are tales of tragedy the fate of the Donner Party the great fire in Chicago the eruption of Mount Saint Helens There are stories of inventors and athletes and abolitionists and artists Stories about struggling for freedom again and again in so many ways With full color illustrations on nearly every page and short exciting stories this book is perfect for browsing by the entire family Notes at the end of each story direct readers to related stories And a guide to thematic story arcs offers readers and teachers an easy way to follow their particular interests throughout the book A treasure trove of a book that belongs in every home This lively and engaging collection of stories recounting American history is a wonderful gift not only to the children of this country but also their parents I can t wait to share it with my grandchildren Tom Brokaw     Keepers of the Earth Michael J.
