Kisluk-Grosheide, Wolfram Koeppe, William Rieder, 2006-05-30

This beautifully produced volume is the first to survey the Metropolitan Museum's world renowned collection of European furniture. One hundred and three superb examples from the Museum's vast holdings are featured. They originated in workshops in England, France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Austria, Russia, or Spain and date from the Renaissance to the late nineteenth century. A number of them belonged to such important historical figures as Pope Urban VIII, Louis XIV, Madame de Pompadour, and Napoleon. The selection includes chairs, tables, beds, cabinets, commodes, settees, and sofas, bookcases, and standing shelves, desks, fire screens, armoires, coffer chests, mirrors, and frames, showcases, and lighting equipment. There is also one purely decorative piece, a superb vase made for a Russian noble family who, according to one awestruck viewer, owned all the malachite mines in the world. The makers of some of the objects are unknown, but most of the pieces can be identified by label, documentation, or style as the work of an outstanding European designer/craftsman such as André Charles Boulle, Thomas Chippendale, David Roentgen, or Karl Friedrich Schinkel.

Each volume is arranged by appropriate sub themes and it is the first set of primary sources to be gathered together in this comprehensive and accessible format. Design refers to more than simply products and personalities or even cultural ideas; it involves consideration of ways of design thinking and applications as well as the philosophies and the other disciplines that impinge upon it. Here the final volume looks at consumption and uses of design as a part of the wider cultures of the period. The volumes will be of interest to a range of scholars and students including those in art and design history, visual culture, and nineteenth century material culture. They will also be of interest to a broad range of scholars working in areas including aesthetics, gender, politics, and philosophy.
