Corner where there's death amongst the dahlias Daphne Brewster has gladly swapped south London for Pudding Corner a Norfolk hamlet full of quintessentially English charm With a mix of stone cottages Georgian architecture and Victorian Gothic houses all nestled together and surrounded by fields of gold and green Pudding Corner and its neighboring village of Pepperbridge seem as far from the bustle of city living as one can get For Daphne joy at moving into beautiful Cranberry Farmhouse with her husband James and their three young children is tempered by some concerns about being the only Black woman for miles around But within a few short months Daphne has become known as the parish's Vintage Lady and has set up her own shop Business is thriving and so is her family As for Pudding Corner it's rapidly revealing itself to be filled with complicated intertwined lives on par with anything she left behind Then the local school's headmaster is found dead in his allotment patch unleashing a storm of secrets and scandal Even a sleepy village has its social hierarchy and as her new friend Minerva becomes a target of whispers and speculation Daphne can't resist getting involved Fighting for the underdog comes as naturally as sourcing the perfect vintage piece But there is more at stake here than Daphne could have guessed and a killer who has succeeded once is all too willing to try again Local Library, Global Passport J.
