

A large cruise ship is seen from a distance, sailing on a dark, choppy sea. The ship is white with a dark hull and has multiple decks. The sky is overcast with grey clouds. The overall mood is somber and mysterious.

Sweet Dreams Bitter Awakenings:

Sweet Dreams . . . Bitter Awakenings Patricia A. Lively, 1997-06-01 Performing Power Arnout van der Meer, 2021-02-15 Performing Power illuminates how colonial dominance in Indonesia was legitimized maintained negotiated and contested through the everyday staging and public performance of power between the colonizer and colonized Arnout Van der Meer s Performing Power explores what seemingly ordinary interactions reveal about the construction of national racial social religious and gender identities as well as the experience of modernity in colonial Indonesia Through acts of everyday resistance such as speaking a different language withholding deference and changing one s appearance and consumer behavior a new generation of Indonesians contested the hegemonic colonial appropriation of local culture and the racial and gender inequalities that it sustained Over time these relationships of domination and subordination became inverted and by the twentieth century the Javanese used the tropes of Dutch colonial behavior to subvert the administrative hierarchy of the state Thanks to generous funding from the Sustainable History Monograph Pilot and the Mellon Foundation the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access OA volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other Open Access repositories Europe Zygmunt Bauman, 2013-05-08 More than ever before our conflict ridden drifting planet needs the qualities that Europe unique among the continents has developed in more than two millennia of history its self criticism its urge to self transcendence exploration and experiment its conviction that alternative and better forms of human togetherness can be achieved as well as its dedication to the cause of seeking and promoting this improvement in practice But today Europe is unsure of itself and its place in a fast changing world it is devoid of vision limited in resources and lacking the will to pursue its vocation It is also struggling with the consequences of a one sided process of globalization which is divorcing power from politics inciting the shift from the social state to security focused governance and piling up the casualties of uncontrolled market expansion and the ethically blind commercialization of human life Bauman argues that despite the odds Europe still has much to offer in dealing with the great challenges that face us in the twenty first century Through sharing its own hard won historical lessons Europe can play a vital role in moving from the Hobbesian like world in which we find ourselves today towards the kind of peaceful unification of humanity that was once envisioned by Kant The Argosy Mrs. Henry Wood, Charles William Wood, 1868 A magazine of tales travels essays and poems Reviewing the Past Zoltán Somhegyi, 2020-03-10 Though constantly in decay ruins continue to fascinate the observer Their still standing survival is a loud affirmation of their presence in which we can admire the struggle against the power of Nature aesthetically manifested during the decay This volume takes a thematic approach to examining the aesthetics of ruins It looks at the general aspects of architectural decay and its classical forms of admiration and then turns towards ruins from both classical and contemporary periods from both Western and non Western areas and with examples from high art as well as popular culture Combining the methodologies of art history aesthetics and cultural history this book opens up new ways of looking at the phenomenon of ruins Brewed Awakening Joshua M. Bernstein, 2011-11-03 Fine wine has always had its expert guides to taste and terroir Why not beer Funky young and smart this is the ultimate beer geeks companion covering everything from the homebrew renaissance to nanobreweries to many of Americas preeminent beer events and festivals Theres a revolution brewing among craft beer makers Theyre reviving long forgotten recipes dosing brews with wild yeasts to create new flavors and using organic grains and hops to forge a delicious new frontier of beer And no ones better equipped to tell us whats happening than Joshua M Bernstein former Gourmet com writer and one of the worlds foremost beer experts He covers all of todays top trends including high alcohol bourbon barrel aged cask conditioned and even gluten free beers Designed to look just like Joshuas notebook and featuring labels and photos this extreme guide is a one stop shop for cutting edge beer technology taste and information Romances: La dame de Monsoreau Alexandre Dumas, Auguste Maquet, 1893 A Gardener's Year Henry Rider Haggard, 1905 Evangeline Clare Hamlin, 2012-08-13 Young Evangeline Taylor has had enough of her life in New York so she decides to start a new life in Ireland There she lives with her best friend and meets the love of her life Benjamin Callaghan who also happens to be the young mysterious man she has dreamt of Soon her dreams become a reality but are these just coincidences Or is there a deeper and more terrifying meaning behind it The Poetical Works of Ardeen Foster ... Ardeen Foster, 1906 Dumas' Romances: La dame de Monsoreau Alexandre Dumas, 1893 The Long Descent John Michael Greer, 2008-09-01 The author of Dark Age America shares a harrowing vision of the future and what you can do to take action and make change Americans are expressing deep concern about US dependence on petroleum rising energy prices and the threat of climate change Unlike the energy crisis of the 1970s however there is a lurking fear that now the times are different and the crisis may not easily be resolved The Long Descent examines the basis of such fear through three core themes Industrial society is following the same well worn path that has led other civilizations into decline a path involving a much slower and more complex transformation than the sudden catastrophes imagined by so many social critics today The roots of the crisis lie in the cultural stories that shape the way we understand the world Since problems cannot be solved with the same thinking that created them these ways of thinking need to be replaced with others better suited to the needs of our time It is too late for massive programs for top down change the change must come from individuals Hope exists in actions that range from taking up a handicraft or adopting an obsolete technology through planting an organic vegetable garden taking charge of your own health care or spirituality and building community Focusing eloquently on constructive adaptation to massive change this book will have wide appeal Praise for The Long Descent At once erudite and entertaining Greer s exploration of the dynamics of societal collapse couldn t be more timely Richard Heinberg Senior Fellow Post Carbon Institute and author of The Party s Over and Peak Everything Candidates for public office and the voters who elect them should be required to read Greer s accurate diagnosis of the terminal illness our fossil energy subsidized industrial civilization has too long denied He shows how stubborn belief in perpetual progress blinded us to the abyss toward which we were speeding and thus impeded wise preparation for our unavoidable descent into a deindustrial age We must hope that the array of mitigating tools he prescribes may yet render that descent down the back side of Hubbert's peak less devastating than it will be if we insistently claim a right to be prodigal in using this finite Earth

Willam R Catton Jr author of Overshoot The Ecological Basis of Revolutionary Change La Dame de Monsoreau Alexandre Dumas,1893 Sea-leaves Mary Camilla Foster Hall-Wood,1887 Robert Reid Alice O'Hanlon,1883 Hillford-on-Aire Martin Weld,1878 European Integration Since the 1920s Mark Hewitson,2024-10-14 Brexit populism and Euroscepticism seem to have challenged old assumptions about European integration and raised the prospect of disintegration This book re-examines why the European Union and its forerunners were created and investigates how and why they have changed It links contemporary events to historical explanation arguing that there were long term sets of conditions dating back to the 1920s which pushed European governments to cooperate economically and to try to resolve their diplomatic differences The failure of the French and German governments to create what Aristide Briand had called a European federal union demonstrated both the precariousness of the enterprise and its connection to the domestic politics of European states After 1945 the unexpected advent of a Cold War and the military diplomatic and economic presence of the United States in Europe facilitated the gradual development of habits of cooperation and institutional integration but they also placed limits on European governments activities as did disagreements between political parties and the expectations of citizens As a consequence supranational bodies such as the European Commission have been accompanied and often overshadowed by intergovernmental institutions such as the European Council with the EU as a whole functioning in important respects as a type of confederation The volume addresses a series of large scale historical questions which are integral to an understanding of the European Union It asks how and why citizens of member states have identified with the EU how matters of security affected the development of the European Community during and after the Cold War whether economic and social convergence have taken place and with what consequences and why European institutions have come to function as they have The study is thematic focusing on the most important aspects of European integration and explaining why member states have decided to carry out or have consented to the unique experiment of the European Union Life's
