Nathaniel Hawthorne (1804-1864) was an American novelist and short story writer. His writing centers on New England, many works featuring moral allegories with a Puritan inspiration. His fiction works are considered to be part of Dark Romanticism. His themes often centre on the inherent evil and sin of humanity, and his works often have moral messages and deep psychological complexity. Excerpt: "My dearest Sophie, I had a parting glimpse of you Monday forenoon at your window, and that image abides by me, looking pale and not so quiet as is your wont. I have reproached myself many times since because I did not show my face, and then we should both have smiled, and so our reminiscences would have been sunny instead of shadowy. But I believe I was so intent on seeing you that I forgot all about the desirableness of being myself seen."
