Sweet Hollow Stories:

Sweet Hollow Lou V. Crabtree, 1984-01-01 Sweet Hollow tells of life in the hills of Appalachia some fifty years ago a primal world of craggy hills and tangled forests where good and evil charity and malice exist in their purest forms If the pleasures of men women and children in these seven stories are simple the ills and misfortunes that beset them are equally forthright and undiluted There is beauty in the ridges and ponds and grace in the flights of birds overhead but nature also bestows lessons of cruelty and can without warning turn tormentor There is magic and holiness in these hills but there is also witchcraft and the hoofprint of the devil Lou Crabtree portrays this world in all its rugged complexity writing of the games of its children and the struggles of its adults the wiles of its predators and the contentment of its livestock In Little Jesus she tells of the roamings of a group of children and of the one fatherless boy among them who is the innocent victim of their jokes and scourgings Wild John is the story of a hellfire preacher s attempts to understand the actions of his vengeful seemingly hellbent son Holy Spirit tells of the life of Old Rellar a woman who cruelly mistreated by her husband is left to expend her gift of pure selfless love on the buried bodies of her thirteen miscarriages and on the motherless calf and piglet that she nurses back to health And Homer Snake describes the affection of a solitary woman named Old Marth for a particularly cunning blacksnake who lives in the corner of her stone chimney The world of Sweet Hollow is a harsh one But it is a world where at times nature and humanity can be glimpsed in perfect balance There are places such as The Jake Pond where life follows its cycle of seasons undisturbed There are moments like those in The Miracle in Sweet Hollow when wonders occur and the earth and the heavens are suddenly in harmony Haunted New York Cheri

Azalea: The Story of a Little Girl in the Blue Ridge Mountains Elia Wilkinson Peattie,2020-09-28 The guinea hens wanted everybody to get up They said so right under the bedroom window and the turkey gobbler had the same wish and made it known in his most important manner Hours before Mr Rhode Island Red the rooster had expressed his opinion on the subject and from the first pale hint of dawn till the sun swung up in the clear May sky a great company of tanagers robins martins meadow larks and their friends had suggested

each in his own way that it was time to be awake But really it didn't need all of this clamor to get the McBirneys out of bed Since sunup Thomas McBirney had been planting cotton on the red clay terraces of his mountain farm and Mary McBirney his wife had been busied laying her hearth fire getting the breakfast and feeding the crowing cackling gobbling creatures in the yard And three times she had thrust her head in at the door of the lean to to say that if she were a boy she'd get up and see what a pretty day it was James Stuart McBirney otherwise Jim thought his mother was right about almost everything but he did differ with her about getting up when a fellow felt like a log and his eyes were as tight as ticks He had heard her say there was a time for everything and it seemed to him that the time to sleep was when a fellow was sleepy Why should sensible people send him to bed when he wasn't sleepy and make him get up when he was Besides something kept nagging away in the back of his mind It was something that he ought to remember and couldn't quite on account of being so sleepy Or perhaps he didn't want to remember it At any rate it wouldn't let him rest in comfort but pecked away like a woodpecker at a tree So in spite of himself it all came back to him Ma was out of fat pine for kindling and he must go hunting it Short
