Opera for Everyone Megan Steigerwald Ille, 2024-04-15 Opera for Everyone The Industry s Experiments with American Opera in the Digital Age draws on seven years of multi sited ethnography to examine the acclaimed experimental productions of Los Angeles based opera company The Industry Steigerwald Ille understands The Industry s productions as part of an emerging wave of U S operas that integrate new media and interactive performance through means such as site specificity and simulcast video and then traces the company s path from Crescent City 2012 the company s first production to Sweet Land 2020 the company s final production before switching to a new production model Steigerwald Ille argues that by moving opera outside of the opera house The Industry s productions expose the economic and aesthetic structures key to the circulation of operatic performance at the same time that they deploy opera as a tool for digital listening community engagement popular entertainment and commentary on systemic racism and settler colonialism Through ethnographic work with The Industry s creators and performers and close examination of the company s first decade of work this book reveals how The Industry paradoxically provides both a roadmap and boundary line for experimental and traditional companies trying to find new ways to approach operatic performance in the twenty first century United States

Doctorow: Collected Stories E.L. Doctorow, 2017-01-10 A superb collection of fifteen stories including Wakefield the inspiration for the film starring Bryan Cranston by the author of Ragtime The March The Book of Daniel and Billy Bathgate He has been called a national treasure by George Saunders Doctorow's great topic said Don DeLillo is the reach of American possibility in which plain lives take on the cadences of history This power is apparent everywhere in these stories the bravery and self delusion of people seeking the American dream the geniuses mystics and charlatans who offer people false hope or an actual glimpse of greatness In A House on the Plains a mother has a plan for financial independence which may include murder In Walter John Harmon a man starts a cult using subterfuge and seduction Jolene A Life follows a teenager who escapes her home for Hollywood on a perilous quest for success Heist the account of an Episcopal priest coping with a crisis of faith was expanded into the bestseller City of God The Water Works about the underbelly of 1870s New York grew into a brilliant novel Liner Notes The Songs of Billy Bathgate is a corollary to the renowned novel and includes Doctorow s revisions These fifteen stories written from the 1960s to the early twenty first century and selected revised and placed in order by the author himself shortly before he died in 2015 are a testament to the genius of E L Doctorow Praise for Doctorow Collected Stories Here without the framework of historical context that defines his best known novels we discover a Doctorow equally adept at plumbing the contemporary American psyche and are reminded of literature s loss following his death O The Oprah Magazine These tales sketches really wide ranging in time place and circumstances are penned by a modern master What makes Doctorow s historical novels brilliant is their engaging prose smart writerly style unconventional narratives and inventive and entertaining plots Same for these dog eared pre owned stories USA Today Praise for E L Doctorow He has rewarded us these forty five years with a vision of ourselves as a people a vision possessed of what I might call aspirational verve he sees us clearly and tenderly just as we are but also sees past that to what we might at our best become George Saunders Doctorow did not so much write fiction about history as he seemed to occupy history itself He owned it He made it his own Ta Nehisi Coates On every level Doctorow s work is powerful His sensitivity to language is perfectly balanced and complemented by a gigantic vision Jennifer Egan He wrote with such stunning audacity that I can still remember my parents awed dinner table conversation that summer about a novel they were reading called Ragtime that went up to the overgrown wall enclosing the garden of fiction and opened the doorway to history Michael Chabon Doctorow s prose tends to create its own landscape and to become a force that works in opposition to the power of social reality Don DeLillo A writer of dazzling gifts and boundless imaginative energy Joyce Carol Oates Iust Stories for the Young S.
